Greening Industrialization in Sub-Saharan Africa Ralph Luken,Edward Clarence-Smith,2020-04-21 This book explores the concept of greening industrialisation and issues and considerations surrounding it through the lens of Sub Saharan Africa The book critically examines the concept of greening industrialisation and describes the progress and data challenges of monitoring the Sustainable Development Goals confronting African countries The chapters summarise the policy and programme literature focused on eight policy regimes essential for greening industrialisation and identify opportunities for greening industrial policies The authors lay out a research agenda that would inform enable and support greening industrialisation in Sub Saharan Africa and provide an overview of green industrial plans that include climate strategies energy efficiency strategies and green industry assessments This book will be of great interest to students scholars policy makers and planners in the fields of Sub Saharan African development and African environmentalism Children, Childhood, and the Future Andrea Kleeberg-Niepage,2020-01-10 Although most of the world s children live in the Global South much of the corpus of scientific knowledge which forms the basis of the current notion of good childhood worldwide is drawn from research on Western middle class children Even cross cultural research often applies the Western model of childhood as the standard to which others must correspond This volume serves to bridge this gap by both bringing up significant features of the development and socialisation of children in African countries and presenting cross cultural procedures which help to discuss and develop differentiated and joint ideas about childhood instead of implementing one sided standards which are disconnected from most children s lives Data for Learning World Bank Group,2017-09-21 Data are a crucial ingredient in any successful education system but building and sustaining a data system are challenging tasks Many countries around the world have spent significant resources but still struggle to accomplish a functioning Education Management Information System EMIS On the other hand countries that have created successful systems are harnessing the power of data to improve education outcomes Increasingly EMISs are moving away from using data narrowly for counting students and schools Instead they use data to drive system wide innovations accountability professionalization and most important quality and learning This broader use of data also benefits classroom instruction and support at schools An effective data system ensures that education cycles from preschool to tertiary are aligned and that the education system is monitored so it can achieve its ultimate goal producing graduates able to successfully transition into the labor market and contribute to the overall national economy Data for Learning Building a Smart Education Data System and its forthcoming companion volume shed light on challenges in building a data system and provide actionable direction on how to navigate the complex issues associated with education data for better learning outcomes and beyond Data for Learning details the key ingredients of successful data systems including tangible examples common pitfalls and good practices It is a resource for policy makers working to craft the vision and strategic road map of an EMIS as well as a handbook to assist teams and decision makers in avoiding common mistakes It is designed to provide the how to and to guide countries at various stages of EMIS deployment A forthcoming companion volume will focus on digging deeper into the practical applications of education data systems by various user groups in different settings Energy Reduction at U.S. Air Force Facilities Using Industrial Processes National Research Council,Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences,Air Force Studies Board,Committee on Energy Reduction at U.S. Air Force Facilities Using Industrial Processes: A Workshop,2013-03-04 The Department of Defense DoD is the largest consumer of energy in the federal government In turn the U S Air Force is the largest consumer of energy in the DoD with a total annual energy expenditure of around 10 billion Approximately 84 percent of Air Force energy use involves liquid fuel consumed in aviation whereas approximately 12 percent is energy primarily electricity used in facilities on the ground This workshop was concerned primarily with opportunities to reduce energy consumption within Air Force facilities that employ energy intensive industrial processes for example assembly disassembly painting metal working and operation of radar facilities such as those that occur in the maintenance depots and testing facilities Air Force efforts to reduce energy consumption are driven largely by external goals and mandates derived from Congressional legislation and executive orders To date these goals and mandates have targeted the energy used at the building or facility level rather than in specific industrial processes In response to a request from the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Energy and the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Science Technology and Engineering the National Research Council under the auspices of the Air Force Studies Board formed the Committee on Energy Reduction at U S Air Force Facilities Using Industrial Processes A Workshop The terms of reference called for a committee to plan and convene one 3 day public workshop to discuss 1 what are the current industrial processes that are least efficient and most cost ineffective 2 what are best practices in comparable facilities for comparable processes to achieve energy efficiency 3 what are the potential applications for the best practices to be found in comparable facilities for comparable processes to achieve energy efficiency 4 what are constraints and considerations that might limit applicability to Air Force facilities and processes over the next ten year implementation time frame 5 what are the costs and paybacks from implementation of the best practices 6 what will be a proposed resulting scheme of priorities for study and implementation of the identified best practices 7 what does a holistic representation of energy and water consumption look like within operations and maintenance

Education, Social Progress, and Marginalized Children in Sub-Saharan Africa Obed Mfum-Mensah, 2017-05-04 This book employs sociohistorical narrative and discourse frameworks to discuss the sociopolitical complexities and ambiguities of educating marginalized groups in sub Saharan Africa since western education was introduced in the region It outlines the systemic and structural challenges faced by marginalized children in the education system that prevent them from fully participating in the education process This book focuses on how the props underlying Christian missionary education colonial education and early postcolonial educational enterprise all served to marginalize certain groups including women some geographical regions and or communities such as Islamic communities and people with disabilities from the colonial and postcolonial economic discourses This historical background provides the springboard for discussions on the complexities and ambiguities of educating marginalized groups in some communities in sub Saharan Africa in the contemporary times This book also highlights the challenges of the recent policies of policy makers and the strategies and initiatives of civic societies non governmental organizations and local communities to promote marginalized children s participation in education This book elucidates the varied ways certain groups and communities continue to interrogate the structural and systemic challenges that marginalize them educationally It argues that the level of marginalized groups participation in education in sub Saharan African in the 21st century will determine the progress the region will make in the Education for All EFA initiative and the

Millennium Development Goals MDG Furthermore it argues that increasing educational participation in marginalized communities requires implementation of educational programs that address marginalized groups structural social arrangements and socioeconomic contexts Code of Federal Regulations ,2008 Special edition of the Federal Register containing a codification of documents of general applicability and future effect with ancillaries Daily Graphic Yaw Boadu-Ayeboafah,2006-06-09 National Five Digit Zip Code and Post Office Directory ,2003 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religious Education in the Global South Yonah Hisbon Matamba,Bruce A. Collet,2022-02-10 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religious Education in the Global South presents new comparative perspectives on Religious Education RE across the Global South Including 23 chapters written by scholars from the Global North and South this is the first authoritative reference work on the subject The handbook is thematically organised into seven sections The first three sections deal with provision response to changes in contemporary society and decolonizing RE The next four sections explore young people and RE perspectives on teachers RE in higher education and finally challenges and opportunities for RE The term Global South is used here primarily to signify the deep economic divide with the Global North but the concept is also examined in historical geographical political social and cultural terms including the indelible influence of religion in all four broadly defined regions Exploring RE from local cross national as well as regional and sub regional perspectives the handbook examines RE from its diverse past present realities and envisioned future revealing not only tensions contestations injustices and inequalities of power but importantly how inclusive forms of RE can help solve these problems Handbook of Caribbean Economies Robert E. Looney,2020-11-10 This volume aims to illustrate the uniqueness of the economies of the countries and territories of the Caribbean as well as the similarities they share with other regions While most countries in the region share many of the characteristics of middle income countries theirs is a matter of extremes Their generally small size suggests a fragility not found elsewhere While much of the world is beginning to feel some effects of climate change the Caribbean is ground zero These factors suggest a difficult road ahead but the chapters presented in this volume aim to help to spur the search for creative solutions to the region s problems The chapters written by expert contributors examine the Caribbean economies from several perspectives Many break new ground in questioning past policy mindsets while developing new approaches to many of the traditional constraints limiting growth in the region The volume is organized in four sections Part I examines commonalities including issues surrounding small economies tourism climate change and energy security Part II looks at obstacles to sustained progress for example debt natural disasters and crime In Part III chapters consider the specific role of external influences including the USA and the European Union the People s Republic of China as well as regional co operation The volume concludes in Part IV with country case studies intended to provide a sense of the diversity that runs through the region Educating Adolescent Girls Around the Globe Sandra L. Stacki,Supriya Baily,2015-04-10 While many initial education benchmarks are being met new and continuing challenges exist for adolescent girls in the developing world Discrimination violence marginalization and health related issues prevail making proper education at the middle school level crucial during this unique development time As we continue to see the expectations for girls grow education for girls must also find a new place within the evolving norms of political economic cultural and social life This volume takes a global look at the obstacles and enablers in girls education that can have lasting institutional psychological and social consequences It looks at many complex issues affecting education for adolescent girls around the world including the underlying global demands for women in the formal workforce and the universal impact of gender based violence and provides a critical framework through which researchers may explore and critique these complexities West Africa ,2002 Education in West Africa Emefa Takyi-Amoako,2015-05-21 Education in West Africa is a comprehensive critical reference guide to education in the region Written by regional experts the book explores the education systems of Benin Burkina Faso Cameroon Cape Verde Chad The Gambia Ghana Guinea Guinea Bissau Ivory Coast Liberia Mali Mauritania Niger Nigeria Senegal Sierra Leone and Togo It critically examines the development of education provision in each country whilst exploring both local and global contexts Including a comparative introduction to the issues facing education in the region as a whole this handbook is an essential reference for researchers scholars international agencies and policy makers at all levels
