The Pentecostal World Michael Wilkinson, Jörg Haustein, 2023-04-01 The Pentecostal World provides a comprehensive and critical introduction to one of the most vibrant and diverse expressions of contemporary Christianity Unlike many books on Pentecostalism this collection of essays from all continents does not attempt to synthesize and simplify the movement's inherent diversity and fragmented dispersion Instead the global flows of Pentecostalism are firmly grounded in local histories and expressions as well as the various modes of their worldwide reproduction The book thus argues for a new understanding of Pentecostal and Charismatic movements that accounts for the simultaneous processes of pluralization and homogenization in contemporary World Christianity Written by a distinguished team of international contributors across various disciplines the volume is comprised of six parts with each offering a critical perspective on classical themes in the study of Pentecostalism Led by a programmatic introduction the thirty six chapters within these parts explore a variety of themes history and historiography conversion spirit beliefs and exorcism prosperity politics gender relations sexual identities racism development migration pilgrimage interreligious relations media ecumenism and academic research The Pentecostal World is essential reading for students and researchers in anthropology history political science religious studies sociology and theology The book will also be very useful for those in related fields such as culture studies black studies ethnic studies and gender studies

Intercultural Theology Mark J. Cartledge, David Cheetham, 2012-11-29 Intercultural Theology offers a set of groundbreaking essays that describe the nature of intercultural theology as a domain of theology that pays particular attention to the identity of non western forms of Christianity in dialogue with western forms It is theological discourse engaged in multi disciplinary dialogue and therefore uses the insights from historical socio cultural inter religious and empirical studies Intercultural theology is a development from previous discussions within mission studies contextual theology studies in world Christianity and Third World theology Political Spiritualities Ruth Marshall,2009-08-01 After an explosion of conversions to Pentecostalism over the past three decades tens of millions of Nigerians now claim that Jesus is the answer But if Jesus is the answer what is the question What led to the movement s dramatic rise and how can we make sense of its social and political significance In this ambitiously interdisciplinary study Ruth Marshall draws on years of fieldwork and grapples with a host of important thinkers including Foucault Agamben Arendt and Benjamin to answer these questions To account for the movement s success Marshall explores how Pentecostalism presents the experience of being born again as a chance for Nigerians to realize the promises of political and religious salvation made during the colonial and postcolonial eras Her astute analysis of this religious trend sheds light on Nigeria s contemporary politics postcolonial statecraft and the everyday struggles of ordinary citizens coping with poverty corruption and inequality Pentecostalism s rise is truly global and Political Spiritualities persuasively argues that Nigeria is a key case in this phenomenon while calling for new ways of thinking about the place of religion in contemporary politics Postcolonial Linguistic Voices Eric A. Anchimbe,Stephen A. Mforteh,2011-10-27 This volume investigates sociolinguistic discourses identity choices and their representations in postcolonial national and social life and traces them to the impact of colonial contact The chapters stitch together current voices and identities emerging within both ex colonized and ex colonizer communities as each copes with the social lingual cultural and religious mixes triggered by colonialism These mixes reflected in the five thematic parts of the book postcolonial identities nationhood discourses translating the postcolonial living the postcolonial and colonizing the colonizer call for deeper investigations of postcolonial communities using emic approaches Corporate Social Responsibility: A City Upon A Hill Vol. 1 Dr. Kolade Adeyemi,Dr. Funmilayo Adeyemi,2021-07-21 In Corporate Social Responsibility A City Upon A Hill the authors Dr Kolade Adeyemi and Dr Funmilayo Adeyemi applies the remarkable insights that stem from corporate social responsibility practice often misconstrued as the exclusive domain of corporate bodies to help the Church realize the power for positive community change it has within itself that goes beyond preaching the gospel This scholarly work introduces a series of discussions and recommendations designed to help Churches create compelling enriching experiences in the communities they serve The authors share invaluable insights on how to gain the much needed influence to do what the Church is mandated and overcome obstacles that hamper it from fully attaining its God given role as the city upon a hill Spirit and Power Donald E. Miller,Kimon H. Sargeant,Richard Flory,2013-08-15 An exploration of the global growth and social and political impact of Pentecostalism Christianity and Controversies over Homosexuality in Contemporary Africa Ezra Chitando,Adriaan van Klinken,2016-05-12 Issues of homosexuality are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today Frequently these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally such as with the Anti Homosexuality Bill in Uganda In the international media these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them Complementing the companion volume Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa this book investigates Christian politics and discourses on homosexuality in sub Saharan Africa The contributors present case studies from various African countries from Nigeria to South Africa and from Cameroon to Uganda focusing on Pentecostal Catholic and mainline Protestant churches They critically examine popular Christian theologies that perpetuate homophobia and discrimination but they also discuss contestations of such discourses and emerging alternative Christian perspectives that contribute to the recognition of sexual diversity social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa Peoples, Beliefs, Cultures, and Justice in Afro-Catholicism: Ikpu-Ala and Igbo Church Okey Jude Uche, 2017-11-10 This book explores in depth Ikpu ala as a social justice value in the Igbo social justice system The traditional social justice concept of ikpu ala provides an important conceptual framework through which adult Igbo Christians can engage in a critical and conscious theological reflections upon how they can make the Igbo Christian community fully authentic and faithful to the Gospel of Jesus Christ This is a process that will highlight the total transformation of the Igbo society which began with the arrival of the missionaries in 1885 This reflection is based on the Igbo experience and understanding of Omenala the Igbo moral code in which the world of the material and the spiritual while occupying distinct domains nonetheless remain deeply intertwined In this book the author explores that for the Igbo community the reality of theology has evolved as a distinct from of experience that is deeply connected with tradition for the sake of praxis Don Browning 1995 Consequently the author not only sees Ikpu ala as authentic Igbo social justice value but also considers it as something that can be integrated into the Christian social values without either destroying Igbos longstanding cultures or traditions The author highlights two key lessons from the Igbo integration of ikpu ala into Christian social justice 1 that the Igbo Catholic Church should engage the Igbo culture and traditions in a theological interactive reflections for the incarnation of the Word among the Igbo Catholics and 2 that Ikpu ala with its theological values can assist the Igbo Catholic Church in the sacrament of reconciliation and so transform the twenty first century Igbo Catholic into an integrated and authentic Christian Nigerian Pentecostalism and Development Richard Burgess, 2020-04-06 This book examines the contributions both intentional and unintentional of Nigerian Pentecostal churches and NGOs to development studying their development practices broadly in relation to the intersecting spheres of politics economics health education human rights and peacebuilding In sub Saharan Africa Pentecostalism is fast becoming the dominant expression of Christianity but while the growth and civic engagement of these churches has been well documented their role in development has received less attention The Nigerian Pentecostal landscape is one of the most vibrant in Africa Churches are increasingly assuming more prominent roles as they seek to address the social and moral ills of contemporary society often in fierce competition with Islam for dominance in Nigerian public space Some scholars suggest that the combination of an enchanted worldview an emphasis on miracles and prosperity teaching and a preoccupation with evangelism discourages effective political engagement and militates against development However Nigerian Pentecostalism and Development argues that there is an emerging movement within contemporary Nigerian Pentecostalism which is becoming increasingly active in development practices This book goes on to explore the increasingly transnational approach that churches take often seeking to build multicultural congregations around the globe for instance in Britain and the United States Nigerian Pentecostalism and Development Spirit Power and Transformation will be of considerable interest to scholars and students concerned with the intersection between religion and development and to development practitioners and policy makers working in the region

Internal Affairs Wendy H. Wong,2012-07-11 Why are some international nongovernmental organizations NGOs more politically salient than others and why are some NGOs better able to influence the norms of human rights Internal Affairs shows how the organizational structures of human rights NGOs and their campaigns determine their influence on policy Drawing on data from seven major international organizations the International Committee of the Red Cross Amnesty International Human Rights Watch M decins sans Fronti res Oxfam International Anti Slavery International and the International League of Human Rights Wendy H Wong demonstrates that NGOs that choose to centralize agenda setting and decentralize the implementation of that agenda are more successful in gaining traction in international politics Challenging the conventional wisdom that the most successful NGOs are those that find the right cause or have the most resources Wong shows that how NGOs make and implement decisions is critical to their effectiveness in influencing international norms about human rights Building on the insights of network theory and organizational sociology Wong traces how power works within NGOs and affects their external authority The internal coherence of an organization as reflected in its public statements and actions goes a long way to assure its influence over the often tumultuous elements of the international human rights landscape healing What is speaking in tongues As with all the 40 Questions books the question and answer format offers readers targeted guidance on the questions that matter most to them and controversial issues are addressed with robust scholarship and in a spirit of grace Theological Libraries and Library Associations in Europe ,2022-08-15 During the past 50 years theological libraries have confronted secularisation and religious pluralism along with revolutionary technological developments that brought not only significant challenges but also unexpected opportunities to adopt new instruments for the transfer of knowledge through the automation and computerisation of libraries This book shows how European theological libraries tackled these challenges how they survived by redefining their task by participating in the renewal of scholarly librarianship and by networking internationally Since 1972 BETH the Association of European Theological Libraries has stimulated this process by enabling contacts among a growing number of national library associations all over Europe

Caught in the Current Sam Reimer,2023-04-15 Evangelical Christianity is known for its defence of traditional Christian teachings and resistance to liberalizing trends Many Western evangelicals themselves do not yet realize how their faith is being reshaped by the modern zeitgeist Caught in the Current explores how and why Western evangelicals are changing Church attendance is declining conservative moral positions are unpopular and young people are drifting away from the faith Evangelism is avoided so few are joining congregations Yet these surface changes are only symptoms of a more profound shift that church leaders have not fully apprehended Drawing upon 125 interviews with British and Canadian clergy and active laity Sam Reimer argues that evangelicals have been deeply influenced by a post Christian culture that has rejected institutional religious authority and embraced self spirituality As individual evangelicals struggle to navigate these waters and to distance themselves from politicized evangelicalism in the United States they are caught between conformity and resistance between faithfulness to church moral teachings and accommodation of secular values Many are responding by turning inward to define their Christian beliefs for themselves The ironic result is that the decline of institutional religious authority is not happening just in Western culture but within evangelical churches as well Caught in the Current is an insightful and nuanced assessment of how British and Canadian evangelicals are navigating a post Christian culture often in ways that are distinct from how their counterparts in the United States approach it
