IN 1994, the first of the Journal of Management Inquiry special issues was devoted to the topic of "International Management." This special issue was edited by David M. McCabe and featured articles by authors from a variety of countries. The special issue was a success, and it was clear that there was a need for a journal that focused on international management. This led to the creation of the Journal of Management Inquiry, which was first published in 1994. The journal has since become a leading journal in the field of international management, and it continues to publish high-quality research on this topic.
