Readings from Reading Herbert Ekwe-Ekwe, 2011 The essays here underscore Herbert Ekwe-Ekwe's continuing optimism about the possibilities of Africans constructing post-Berlin states as the launch pad to transform the topography of the African renaissance Readings from Reading is a timely publication coming on the eve of the historic January 2011 referendum in south Sudan in which the people of the region will choose to vote to restore their national independence or get stuck hopelessly in the Sudan the first of the Berlin states that Africans tragically inherited in January 1956 Ekwe-Ekwe insists that the contemporary Africa state imposed on Africans by a band of European conqueror states and currently run by what the author describes as a shard of disreputable African regimes to exploit and despoil the continent's human and material resources cannot serve African interests The legacy as this study demonstrates has indeed been catastrophic The African overseers pushed the states into even deeper depths of genocidal and kakistocratic notoriety in the past 54 years as the grim examples of particularly Nigeria the Democratic Republic of the Congo and the Sudan depressingly underscore 15 million Africans have been murdered by African-led regimes in these states and elsewhere in Africa since the Igbo genocide of 1977-1970 This is an engaging incisive wide-ranging and multidisciplinary discourse salient features that have come to define Ekwe-Ekwe's groundbreaking scholarship of the past three decades The author covers an assemblage of diverse topics and themes which include the Igbo genocide the Jos massacres in central Nigeria Umar Farouk Abdul Mutallab's failed attempt to blow up an incoming aircraft over Detroit on Christmas Day 2009 African presence in Britain Robert Mugabe Muammar Gaddafi Obafemi Awolowo Omar al-Bashir Charles Taylor Olusegun Obasanjo Ali Mazrui Andrew Young the G8 and Africa Africa debt African emigres remittances to Africa sub-Saharan Africa reparations to Africans African representation on the UN Security Council African choices for the Nobel Peace Prize Africa and the International Criminal Court Nigeria Cote d'Ivoire Kenya the Sudan and the Congo arms to Africa arms ban on Africa Finally on the subject of the restoration of independence the key connecting thread that links all the visitations Ekwe-Ekwe critically examines the contributions made variously on this cord by an impressive line-up of some of the very best and

Sherman, 2024-01-08 Few articles in the humanities have had the impact of Lisa Jardine and Anthony Grafton's seminal Studied for Action 1990 a study of the reading practices of Elizabethan polymath and prolific annotator Gabriel Harvey Their excavation of the setting methods and ambitions of Harvey's encounters with his books ignited the History of Reading an interdisciplinary field which quickly became one of the most exciting corners of the scholarly cosmos A generation inspired by the model of Harvey fanned out across the world's libraries and archives seeking to reveal the many creative unexpected and curious ways that individuals throughout history responded to texts and how these interpretations in turn illuminate past worlds Three decades on Harvey's example and Jardine's work remain central to cutting edge scholarship in the History of Reading By uniting Studied for Action with published and unpublished studies on Harvey by Jardine Grafton and the scholars they have influenced this collection provides a unique lens on the place of marginalia in textual intellectual and cultural history The chapters capture subsequent work on Harvey and map the fields opened by Jardine and Grafton's original article collectively offering a posthumous tribute to Lisa Jardine and an authoritative overview of the History of Reading Ngugi wa Thiong'o, Gender, and the Ethics of Postcolonial Reading Dr Brendon Nicholls, 2013-04-28 This is the first comprehensive book length study of gender politics in Ngugi wa Thiong'o's fiction Brendon Nicholls argues that mechanisms of gender subordination are strategically crucial to Ngugi's ideological project from his first novel to his most recent one Nicholls describes the historical pressures that lead Ngugi to represent women as he does and shows that the novels themselves are symptomatic of the cultural conditions that they address Reading Ngugi's fiction in terms of its Gikuyu allusions and references a gendered narrative of history emerges that creates transgressive spaces for women Nicholls bases his discussion on moments during the Mau Mau rebellion when women's contributions to the anticolonial struggle could not be reduced to a patriarchal narrative of Kenyan history and this interpretive maneuver permits a reading of Ngugi's fiction that accommodates female political and sexual agency Nicholls contributes to postcolonial theory by proposing a methodology for reading cultural difference This methodology critiques cultural practices like clitoridectomy in an ethical manner that seeks to avoid both cultural imperialism and cultural relativism His strategy of performative reading that is making the conditions of one text such as folklore history or translation active in another for example fiction literary narrative or nationalism makes possible an ethical reading of gender and of the conditions of reading in translation
