

How to format a screenplay

Slug

Where and when is the scene taking place

INT. BEDROOM - NIGHT

Bright light enters through the huge window. JULY, 34, in army uniforms, is frantically taking clothes out of a closet.

Action

Description, in present time, of WHO and WHAT is in the scene. Choose words that communicate best the scene's LOOK and FEEL.

JULY → Character's name all caps. Always
Mac, get in here!

A 30 something shirtless guy enters the room, he's calm, eating a piece of watermelon that is dripping all over.

Paratheticity

A Description within the dialogue. Use when you need to make sure your intention is clear.

JULY
Where's the box with the... the thing...my grandfather's...

MAC
Oh... the Voodoo box.

JULY
(Angry)
It's NOT Voodoo.

NAME (O.S) = The character is present in the scene, but is OFF SCREEN. (including phone calls).

NAME (V.O) = The character is NOT present in the scene, but the audience hears the dialog - Voice Over.

July's phone beeps. July pulls her phone out of her pocket.

ON JULY'S PHONE → Action Line

Where are you?! → Dialogue Line

BACK TO JULY.

JULY
Fuck!

Mac looks at July as she storms out of the room, leaving a mess behind.

Who Wrote Citizen Kane? Warren Buckland,2023-09-28

This book offers a solution to one of film history s major controversies the long running dispute over Orson Welles and Herman J Mankiewicz s contributions to the Citizen Kane screenplay It establishes the vital importance of computing and statistics to solving previously intractable puzzles in the arts and humanities Citizen Kane 1941 is one of the most acclaimed films in the history of cinema For 50 years it topped the Sight Sound film critics poll Orson Welles directed the film and is credited with co writing the screenplay with Herman J Mankiewicz But the co writer credit generates furious disputes between those who argue Mankiewicz is the sole author of Citizen Kane and those who claim that Welles collaborated fully with its writing The author employs computing and statistics to answer two questions What are the distinguishing features of Welles and of Mankiewicz s writing And What did each contribute to the writing of the Citizen Kane screenplay To answer these questions the author bypasses opinions and impressions and instead subjects the language of the Citizen Kane screenplay to a forensic examination Employing linguistics basic statistical tests plus computer technology and software the author identifies the stylistic signature of each author the combination of consistent and regular linguistic habits that make each author s writing distinctive This book replaces impressionistic discussions of Mankiewicz s and Welles contributions to the Citizen Kane screenplay with a rigorous experiment driven statistical analysis Earlier statistical studies of authorship have discovered that small unassuming language features such as punctuation pronouns and prepositions in statistically significant quantities constitute a screenwriter s distinctive writing habits Only with the extensive experimentation carried out in this volume did the author decide Mankiewicz s and Welles specific habits and their contributions to Citizen Kane

Script Culture and the American Screenplay Kevin Alexander Boon,2008-01-10 By considering the screenplay as a literary object worthy of critical inquiry this volume breaks new ground in film studies Though the history of the screenplay is as long and rich as the history of film itself critics and scholars have neglected it as a topic of serious research Script Culture and the American Screenplay treats the screenplay as a literary work in its own right presenting analyses of screenplays from a variety of frameworks including feminism Marxism structuralism philosophy and psychology In distancing the text of screenplays from the on screen performance typically associated with them Kevin Alexander Boon expands the scope of film studies into exciting new territory with this volume Script Culture and the American Screenplay is divided into two parts Part 1 provides a general background for screenplay studies tracing the evolution of the screenplay from the early shot lists and continuities of George M li s and Thomas Harper Ince to the more detailed narratives of contemporary works Part 2 offers specific primarily thematic critical examinations of screenplays along with discussions of the original screenplay and the screenplay adaptation In all Boon explains that screenplay criticism distinguishes itself from traditional film studies in three major ways The primary focus of screenplay criticism is on the screenplay rather than the film the focus of screenplay studies is on the screenwriter rather than the director and screenplay criticism like literary criticism is written to illuminate a reader s understanding of the text Boon demonstrates that whether we are concerned with aesthetics and identifying rules for distinguishing the literary from the non literary or whether we align ourselves with more contemporary theories which recognize texts as distinguishable in their inter relationships and marked difference screenplays constitute a rich cache of works worthy of critical examination Film scholars as well as students of film creative writing and literary studies will appreciate this singular volume
