

Writing a Play Script

Don't forget the pieces that make a play script!

They appear most of the time in the text, unless it's something about who you know the person is talking to. Usually, unless it's something which is more than just a word.

The script should be in the right place, so it's easy to read and follow.

Don't forget to write

"Who's in?" generally a list of names and roles.

"Where's the script?" It's your own script, so it's not a high-sounding name.

The script should be in the right place, so it's easy to read and follow.
