

THE "SAILING" OF THE NAUTILUS.

ONE of the prettiest fables of the sea is that relating to the Paper Nautilus, the constructor and inhabitant of the delicate and beautiful shell which looks as if it were made of ivory no thicker than a sheet of writing paper.

FIG. 27.—THE PAPER NAUTILUS (Argonauta argo) SAILING.

It is an old belief that in calm weather it rises from the bottom of the sea, and, elevating its two broadly-expanded arms, spreads to the gentle air, as a sail, the membrane, light as a spider's web, by which they are united ; and that,

Sea Fables Explained:

Sea Fables Explained Henry Lee, 1884 Sea Fables Explained Henry Lee, 2014-10-31 Sea Fables Explained was published along with its counterpart Sea Monsters Unmasked by aquarium director Henry Lee for the Fisheries Exhibition of 1883. Sea Fables Explained covers a variety of sea creatures but of special interest to cryptozoologists is Lee's treatment of Mermaids, Mermen and Merbeings in general. As Loren Coleman notes in the introduction, the books are small in size but filled with data and illustrations taken from news sources and eyewitness accounts of his cryptozoological subjects. Part of the Loren Coleman Presents series for Cosimo Classics, readers are sure to enjoy its partner piece Sea Monsters Unmasked which deals with the Kraken and the Sea Serpent to round out their knowledge of underwater species. HENRY LEE 1826-1888 was the naturalist and director of the Brighton Aquarium in England. As a great observer of the collection's underwater life and wrote the Aquarium Notes for the visitors and authored several books on underwater life including The Octopus 1874 and Sea Monsters Unmasked 1883 and Sea Fables Explained 1883. He was also a contributor to the magazine Land and Water. Lee died at age 62 after some years of ill health at Renton House, Brixton, on Halloween, October 31, 1888. Sea Fables Explained (Classic Reprint) Henry Lee, 2015-07-22. Excerpt from Sea Fables Explained. The little book Sea Monsters Unmasked recently issued as one of the Handbooks in connection with the Great International Fisheries Exhibition has met with so favourable a reception that I have been honoured by the request to continue the subject and to treat also of some of the Fables of the Sea which once were universally believed and even now are not utterly extinct. The topic is not here exhausted. Other sea fables and fallacies might be mentioned and explained but the amount of letter press and the number of illustrations that can be printed without loss for the small sum of one shilling, the price at which these Handbooks are uniformly published, is necessarily limited. I have therefore thought it better to endeavour to make each chapter as complete as possible than to crowd into the space allotted to me a greater variety of subjects less fully and carefully discussed. I have the pleasure of acknowledging the kind assistance I have again received in the matter of illustrations.
