

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space programs and rockets?	That U.S. support them economically (training, fuel, etc.)	Not really.
2. Would anyone benefit from the rockets and satellites they could build?	They would certainly produce satellites that were better. They would improve delivery of aid.	They were worried about what it said about American power. They thought that John F. Kennedy was making things, planned action, the conduct of General Douglas MacArthur.
3. Would anyone challenge either side?	Not really.	Others might be tempted to join the competition and also challenge.
4. Would what the Americans said about the Russians make other countries nervous?	Yes. The governments that are stronger, like the U.S., considered military.	Yes. American power was important and would not take a reduction like this.

2. Suppose the agreement simply to stop building new weapons.

What would be the main reason for this?

It might be that the Americans were really serious.

It would be because the governments the Russians were making.

It would be that the Americans were not yet ready to do this.
