Seeing Red English Edition:

Seeing Red Jose P. Zagal, Benj Edwards, 2024-05-14 The curious history technology and technocultural context of Nintendo's short lived stereoscopic gaming console the Virtual Boy With glowing red stereoscopic 3D graphics the Virtual Boy cast a prophetic hue Shortly after its release in 1995 Nintendo's balance sheet for the product was in the red as well Of all the innovative long shots the game industry has witnessed over the years perhaps the most infamous and least understood was the Virtual Boy Why the Virtual Boy failed and where it succeeded are questions that video game experts Jos Zagal and Benj Edwards explore in Seeing Red but even more interesting to the authors is what the platform actually was what it promised how it worked and where it fit into the story of gaming Nintendo released the Virtual Boy as a standalone table top device in 1995 and quickly discontinued it after lackluster sales and a lukewarm critical reception In Seeing Red Zagal and Edwards examine the device's technical capabilities its games and the cultural context in the US in the 1990s when Nintendo developed and released the unusual console The Virtual Boy in their account built upon and extended an often forgotten historical tradition of immersive layered dioramas going back 100 years that was largely unexplored in video games at the time The authors also show how the platform's library of games conveyed a distinct visual aesthetic style that has not been significantly explored since the Virtual Boy's release having been superseded by polygonal 3D graphics The platform's meaning they contend lies as much in its design and technical capabilities and affordances as it does in an audience's perception of those capabilities Offering rare insight into how we think about video game platforms Seeing Red illustrates where perception and context come quite literally into play

Seeing Red Pauline Sameshima, 2007 A brilliant and daring piece of scholarship this book will raise eyebrows and spark much debate It does not simply break new ground it breaks all the rules ultimately compelling us to examine and embrace scholarship in fresh innovative ways Seeing Red is based on Pauline Sameshima's doctoral dissertation Winner of the 2007 Arts Based Educational Research ABER Outstanding Dissertation Award by the American Educational Research Association AERA This award is for the best dissertation that explores is an exemplar of and pushes the boundaries of arts based educational research The book showcases a PhD dissertation written in the form of an epistolary bildungsroman a didactic novel of personal developmental journeying The work is a fiction letters from a graduate student to the professor she is in love with embedded in developmental understanding of living the life of a teacher researcher The work shares the possibilities of how artful research informs processes of scholarly inquiry and honours the reader's multi perspective as integral to the research project's transformative potential Parallax is the apparent change of location of an object against a background due to a change in observer position or perspective shift The concept of parallax encourages researchers and teachers to acknowledge and value the power of their own and their readers and students shifting subjectivities and situatedness which directly influence the constructs of perception interpretation and learning The novel format ties themes and characters together just as storytelling can bind theory and practice Norman Denzin 2005 supports the pedagogical and libratory nature of the critical democratic storytelling imagination He hails this book as bold innovative a wild transformative text almost unruly a new vision for critical reflexive inquiry The love story and issues of teacher learner role boundaries are controversial and largely unspoken of in educational settings and the letter format is voyeuristic In this sense the audience is being given a peek a look at the unrevealed One of the advantages of the epistolary novel is its semblance of reality and the difficulty for readers to distinguish the text from genuine correspondence Wurzbach 1969 The genre allows the reader access to the writing character s intimate thoughts without perceived interference from the author s manipulation and conveys events with dramatic and sensational immediacy Carafi 1997 NBS Special Publication ,1976 “A” View of the English Editions, Translations and Illustrations of the Ancient Greek and Latin Authors, with Remarks Lewis Wilhelm Brüggemann,1797 Seeing Red Mark Cronlund Anderson,Carmen L. Robertson,2011-09-02 The first book to examine the role of Canada s newspapers in perpetuating the myth of Native inferiority Seeing Red is a groundbreaking study of how Canadian English language newspapers have portrayed Aboriginal peoples from 1869 to the present day It assesses a wide range of publications on topics that include the sale of Rupert s Land the signing of Treaty 3 the North West Rebellion and Louis Riel the death of Pauline Johnson the outing of Grey Owl the discussions surrounding Bill C 31 the Bended Elbow standoff at Kenora Ontario and the Oka Crisis The authors uncover overwhelming evidence that the colonial imaginary not only thrives but dominates depictions of Aboriginal peoples in mainstream newspapers The colonial constructs ingrained in the news media perpetuate an imagined Native inferiority that contributes significantly to the marginalization of Indigenous people in Canada That such imagery persists to this day suggests strongly that our country lives in denial failing to live up to its cultural mosaic boosterism A View of the English Editions, Translations, and Illustrations of the Ancient Greek and Latin Authors Ludwig Wilhelm Brüggemann,1797

Seeing Red Holley Trent,2020-04-14 Megan Coffman needs to put her divorce from one of rock and roll s biggest womanizers behind her and fast Dubbed Poor Meg by the music media she s sick of being pitied and thinks the best way to show the public she s moved on is to flash her brand new engagement ring She didn t think she d need to follow up with a man and a wedding to go with that ring Russian expatriate Seth Rozhkov likes the idea of an instant family and agrees to play husband for a year for a virtual stranger At thirty five he s weary from batting zero in the dating game Women want him for just one thing and it s not a happily ever after Mutual friend Sharon swears if he plays his cards right he could have Meg for keeps He s willing to try Meg finds the gentle giant his friends call Red an enigma He s solicitous almost to a fault and the no strings attached sex is amazing but she s used to being used What s Seth getting out of the deal How can she trust a man who hasn t asked her for anything in return This is a revised second edition of the book first published by Lyrical Press Kensington in 2014 Ocean of Attainments ,2024-04-16 This commentary on Guhyasamaja tantra is the seminal guide to deity yoga and tantric visualization for the Geluk school of Tibetan Buddhism Ocean of Attainments was composed by

Khedrup J Gelek Palsang 1385 1438 one of Tsongkhapa Losang Drakpa s most prominent disciples Its subject is the creation stage a quintessential Buddhist tantric meditation that together with the completion stage comprises the path of unexcelled tantra The Guhyasamaja Tantra referred to as the king of all tantras is revered in Tibet especially by the Geluk school for its hermeneutic methods which are in turn applied to other tantras In the creation stage meditators visualize themselves as buddhas at the center of the celestial mandala surrounded in all directions by male and female bodhisattvas and enlightened beings Since the core of the practice is visualization this meditation perhaps more than other meditations presumes the creative power of the mind Visualizations form the basis not only of the creation stage and deity yoga but of all tantric practices and rituals since tantric practice takes place not in mundane existence but in the illusion like purity of the enlightened view While the previously published Essence of the Ocean of Attainments is a concise exposition on the practice of the Guhyasamaja sadhana Ocean of Attainments is much more detailed providing extensive scriptural citations clear explanation of the body mandala arguments on points of contention reference to other tantric systems and critiques of misinterpretations Complemented by the extensive and clear introduction this volume is a vital contribution to the growing body of scholarship on Guhyasamaja and on Buddhist tantra in general
