Content-Based Language Education Susan Ballinger, Ruth Fielding, Diane J. Tedick, 2024-09-10 This book fills a large gap in our understanding of how to prepare teachers for the challenging but increasingly popular task of integrating content and language instruction. It brings together findings on content-based teacher education from Africa, Asia, Australia, Europe, and North America in order to inform researchers and teacher educators and enable them to play a critical role in the continued success of such programs. It offers a solid grounding in theories and applications of content-based approaches with empirical studies investigating teacher identity, materials design, use of cognitive discourse functions, and best practices for teacher education. Responding to the growing popularity of content-based programs and the shortage of qualified teachers for these contexts, this book promotes teacher-researcher collaboration and provides support for trainee teachers, in-service teachers, and course leaders.

Pedagogies to Enhance Learning for Indigenous Students Robyn Jorgensen, Peter Sullivan, Peter Grootenboer, 2012-11-19 This book describes research undertaken by leading Australian researchers in Indigenous communities. While the chapters are Australian in their focus, the issues that are discussed are similar to those in other countries where there are Indigenous people. In most cases in Australia and internationally, Indigenous learners are not succeeding in school, thus making the transition into work and adulthood quite tenuous in terms of mainstream measures. The importance of being literate and numerate are critical in success in school and life in general, thus making this collection an important contribution to the international literature. The collection of works describes a wide range of projects where the focus has been on improving the literacy and numeracy outcomes for Indigenous students. The chapters take various approaches to improving these outcomes and have very different foci. These foci include aspects of literacy, numeracy, curriculum, leadership, ICTs, whole school planning, policy, linguistics, and Indigenous perspectives. Most of the chapters report on large-scale projects that have used some innovation in their focus. The book draws together these projects so that a more connected sense of the complexities and diversity of approaches can be gleaned.
