BOOK II.
Containing an account of things from the Calling of Abraham to the Jewish Departure out of Egypt, in all, 430 years.

CHAP. I. Of the Life of Abraham, from his Call to his Death.

THE HISTORY.

AFTER the death of his father Terah, Abraham, who, by God's appointment, had not long before been led by his father, was now directed to leave Haran, and to go into a country where God would dwell with him, and where, at the same time, give him assistance, that he would rich, powerful, and weak.

* It is very probable, that this was done by some appearance or other of the Almighty, going before him, even to afterwards his journey was conducted in the way directed, him, telling in two times, ascending mountains, and travelling through a dangerous and desert, he had certainly need of an extraordinary divine direction, and of some visible exhibition of nature of it, were he not waiting for the promise of God to support him in his long and to him a journey. Antiquities of the Jews, vol. 1.
