three chapters on the Corpus Islamolatinum that furnish new evidence showing the important role this encyclopedia played in spreading knowledge about Islam and contributing to the creation of propaganda and polemics against Islam among European intellectual circles The chapters in section two offer novel interpretations of the hermeneutical strategies underlying the composition of polemical works such as the lives of Muhammad and Pedro de la Cavalleria s Zelus Christi The essays in section three identify some common hermeneutical strategies in the use of anti Jewish and anti Islamic arguments to polemicize against religious others or edify Christians and illuminate intertextual relations between authors and genres disputatio and praedicatio Finally section four introduces the gender perspective the generated nature of the accusations of Judaizing in the analysis of the transcripts of the inquisitorial court of three sisters who were tried in Barcelona in 1496 on the one hand and two studies that explore the constructions of identities and gender relations reflected in various Islamic sources from opposite ends of the Mediterranean They offer glimpses of women as subject s and as object s of preaching and show how such texts can reify or subvert traditional binary gender roles
