Born on Stoney Fork in southeastern Kentucky, she has lived much of her life close to the mountains among people whose roots are deep in the soil and who pass on to their children a love for the land, a strong sense of belonging, and of place. Mountain food and how it is cooked is very much a part of this sense of place. Ask any displaced Appalachians what they miss most, and they will probably talk about soup, beans, country ham, and homemade biscuits. They may also remember the kitchens at home, the warmth from the wood burning stove, the smell of coffee, and the family gathered around the kitchen table to eat and talk. More than Moonshine is both a cookbook and a narrative that recounts the way of life of southern Appalachia from the 1940s to 1983. The women of Stoney Fork rarely had cash to spend, so they depended upon the free products of nature; their cookery used every nutritious edible thing they could scour from the gardens and hillsides. These survival skills are recounted in the pages of More than Moonshine with instructions for making moonshine, whiskey, for fixing baked groundhog with sweet potatoes, for making turnip kraut, cracklin bread, egg pie, apple stackcake, and other traditional dishes. More than Moonshine is more than a cookbook. It evokes a way of life in the mid twentieth century, not unlike that of pioneer days. Wild Game Recipes and Laughs Robert Foote, Kris Blaze, 2010-04. As
