The Daily Adventures of Mixerman Mixerman, 2018-11-23 The Most Infamous Studio Session Ever Documented In the summer of 2002 I began to chronicle my Daily events on a Major Label recording session with a bidding war band an infamous producer and a seemingly limitless budget Every night after a long session with these crazy characters I posted up the day's events The results were spectacular As Metro reporter Gina Arnold put it Mixerman is supposed to be writing about recording techniques but somehow through that prism he has hit upon a gripping story That's right it was even mentioned in random newspapers at the time When I began posting my story I had an audience of 200 By week 4 that grew to 25 000 And by the last entry I was posting to the delight of over 150 000 music business professionals around the world There were discussion threads all over the internet debating every decision we made along the way The story went viral before viral was even really a thing Most people find them sidesplittingly hilarious Others find them reprehensible but that too is rather hilarious The Daily Adventures are also available as an audiobook which has been produced like an old radio show with music foley sound x and characters performed by some of the most well known record producers and engineers of all time
