Semiotic Approach to the Theology of Inculturation Cyril Orji, 2017-08-31 A Semiotic Approach to the Theology of Inculturation argues that though it is a difficult and delicate task inculturation is still a requisite demand of a World Church and that without it the Church is unrecognisable and unsustainable The book also suggests that the past failures of inculturation experiments in Africa can be overcome only by critically applying the science of semiotics which can serve as an antidote to the nature of human knowing and reductionism that characterised earlier attempts to make Christianity African to the African Drawing from the semiotic works of C S Peirce Clifford Geertz and Bernard Lonergan Cyril Orji shows why semiotics is best suited to an African theology of inculturation and offers ten pinpointed precepts identified as Habits which underline the attentiveness reasonableness and responsibility required in a semiotic approach to a theology of inculturation The Habits are also akin to the imperatives inherent in the notion of catholicity that catholicity is not identified with uniformity but with reconciled diversity and also that catholicity demands different forms in different places times and cultural settings

Liturgy with a Difference Stephen Burns, Bryan Cones, 2019-05-30 Christian churches in recent decades have taken some steps in their practices of liturgy and worship toward acknowledging the graced dignity of human variety But who is still excluded What pernicious norms still govern below the surface and how might they be revealed How do texts gestures and space abet and enforce such norms How might Christian assemblies gather multiple expressions of human difference to propose through Christian liturgy patterns of graced interaction in the world around them Liturgy with a Difference gathers a broad range of international theologians and scholars to interrogate current practices of liturgy and worship in order to unmask ways in which dehumanizing majoritarianisms and presumed norms of gender culture ethnicity and body among others remain at work in congregations Together the chapters in this collection call for a liturgical practice that recognizes and rehearses the vivid richness of God's image found in the human community and glimpsed if only for a moment in liturgical celebration They point a way beyond mere inclusion toward a generous embrace of the many differences that make up the Christian community With contributions from Rachel Mann Teresa Berger Susannah Cornwall Miguel A DeLa Torre Edward Foley W
