Gender Differences and the Making of Liturgical History Professor Teresa Berger, 2013-06-28 Mapping uncharted territory in the study of liturgy's past this book offers a history to contemporary questions around gender and liturgical life Teresa Berger looks at liturgy's past through the lens of gender history understood as attending not only to the historically prominent binary of men and women but to all gender identities including inter-sexed persons ascetic virgins eunuchs and priestly men Demonstrating what a gender attentive inquiry is able to achieve Berger explores both traditional fundamentals such as liturgical space and eucharistic practice and also new ways of studying the past for example by asking about the developing link between liturgical presiding and priestly masculinity Drawing on historical case studies and focusing particularly on the early centuries of Christian worship this book ultimately aims at the present by lifting a veil on liturgy's past to allow for a richly diverse notion of gender differences as these continue to shape liturgical life

Arianism: Roman Heresy and Barbarian Creed Guido M. Ecumenism of Blood Hugh Somerville Knapman, OSB, 2018 Ecumenism of Blood promotes a practical ecumenism through a broader lens of Christian martyrdom and attempts to justify these through formal liturgical recognition enormous attraction today even apart from its Christian character as a celebration of the incarnation of God in the Person of Jesus. Even marginal or indifferent Christians crowd the churches on Christmas Eve and in highly commercialized and technologized Western societies the Christmas season is celebrated with enthusiasm. Yet Christmas entered the calendar of feasts relatively late by 336 C.E. and the reason for its introduction and quick spread remain speculative and based on fragmentary evidence. Towards the Origins of Christmas addresses both the contemporary Western celebration of Christmas and its deep historical roots in the church of the fourth century. The book presents a thorough investigation of the patristic texts and evidence cited by liturgical scholars in the late 19th and 20th centuries to support two main theories: the Calculation theory and the History of Religions theory. This historical research is set in the framework of the contemporary experience of Christmas, the dynamics of time and the liturgical year, the inculturation of liturgy and underlying elements of dualism and patriarchal power paradigms which linger beneath the often commercial and sentimental character of Christmas today.

Suzan K. Roll was born in Clarence Center, New York, USA, in 1952. She holds degrees in classical languages and pastoral theology and in 1993 received a Ph.D. from the Faculty of Theology of the Catholic University of Louvain, Leuven, Belgium, summa cum laude with the gratulations of the jury. She has taught and published in the field of liturgy, sacraments, pastoral theology and presently teaches at Christ the King Seminary, Buffalo, New York, USA.

The Environmental Vision of Thomas Merton Monica Weis, 2011-05-01 Nature was always vital in Thomas Merton's life from the long hours he spent as a child watching his father paint landscapes in the fresh air to his final years of solitude in the hermitage at Our Lady of Gethsemani where he contemplated and wrote about the beauty of his surroundings. Throughout his life Merton's study of the natural world shaped his spirituality in profound ways and he was one of the first writers to raise concern about ecological issues that have become critical in recent years. In The Environmental Vision of Thomas Merton author Monica Weis suggests that Merton's interest in nature which developed significantly during his years at the Abbey of Gethsemani laid the foundation for his growing environmental consciousness. Tracing Merton's awareness of the natural world from his childhood to the final years of his life, Weis explores his deepening sense of place and desire for solitude, his love and responsibility for all living things and his evolving ecological awareness.

Roman Empire Hostile takeover of the Church Henry Epps, 2012-08-27 The roman empire hostile takeover of the church looks at the premises that the Apostle Peter was the first Pope and that the roman catholic church can trace its roots to the early church. This is an invalid argument since it was the roman empire that crucified Jesus Christ and all of the apostles. Peter was not a pope and the inference is incorrect and invalid by historical standpoint.

tortured and killed believers for years and once Constantine assumed the position of Pope they rewrote history and falsely declared the Apostle Peter as the first pope even when the Romans killed him and had him crucified
