Williams, 2010-08-16 This moment by moment account of a major airplane crash on a beautiful and treacherous mountainside puts the reader at the pilot s side describing the flight its catastrophic ending and the aftermath At 7 05 a m on February 19 1955 TWA Flight 260 took off from the Albuquerque airport for a short flight to Santa Fe To avoid flying over the Sandia Mountains the plane s approved air route was a dogleg running north northwest from Albuquerque then east northeast into Santa Fe But at 7 08 a m Flight 260 was headed directly toward Sandia Ridge almost entirely obscured by storm clouds A local resident who saw Flight 260 overhead observed that if the plane was eastbound it was too low if it was northbound it was off course At 7 12 a m the plane s terrain warning bell sounded its alarm Both pilots saw the sheer west face of the Sandias just beyond the right wingtip an appalling shock considering they should have been ten miles further west Reacting instantly they rolled the plane steeply to the left pulled its nose up and started to level the wings It was their final act Hidden by the storm another cliffside lay directly ahead When they struck it they were still in a left bank nose high Cayman's 1794 Wreck of the Ten Sail Margaret E. Todd Kuslikis CEO and cofounder of RallyAll com The Future of Religion Michael R. Ott,2007-06-30 In the midst of the increasing antagonism between religion and secularity the sacred and the profane faith and reason currently described in terms of the clash of civilizations is religion any longer relevant or meaningful in the globalizing development of modern subjectivity inter subjectivity family society state and history If so how and to what end In the socio historical context of the highly secular neo liberal neo conservative globalization movement the question of the social meaning and relevancy of religion has entered directly into the contemporary discourse on the future of humanity This book gives expression to the research of international scholars as they wrestled with these issues during the Future of Religion courses held at the Inter university Center in Dubrovnik Croatia from 2001 2005 Contributors include Aleksandra Ba a Reimon Bachika Ale rni Anja Finger Helmut Fritzsche Denis Janz Hans Herbert K gler Werner Krieglstein Mislav Kuko Gottfried K enzlen Aurelia Margareti Michael R Ott Dunja Poto nik A James Reimer Kjartan Selnes Rudolf J Siebert Hans K Weitensteiner Brian Wilson Katarzyna Zielinska Duty Free Art Hito Steyerl,2017-10-03 In Duty Free Art filmmaker and writer Hito Steyerl wonders how we can appreciate or even make art in the present age What can we do when arms manufacturers sponsor museums and some of the world s most valuable artworks are used as a fictional currency in a global futures market that has nothing to do with the work itself Can we distinguish between creativity and the digital white noise that bombards our everyday lives Exploring artefacts as diverse as video games Wikileaks files the proliferation of spam and political actions she exposes the paradoxes within globalization political economies visual culture and the status of art production When the bombs begin to fall Eric Brady,2014-10-19 The Jacksons are an ordinary London family caught up with the events of WW2 Ron becomes a Warden as well as being a Driver for NAAFI Kitty 10 in 1939 and Tim 5 in 1939 are Evacuated to Folkestone and then Wales Kitty forms close relationships with both her sets of foster parents that her mother May deeply resents Taking Kitty back to London when Ron becomes ill Kitty is then kept there She is furious Tim comes back 6 mos later Both are seriously injured 4 mos later when their school is bombed May is distraught blaming herself Ron had formed a deep relationship with Anne in Folkestone and they had planned to set up a Transport firm there taking Kitty knowing she wanted that After the school bombing and May and the children needing Ron those were put on Hold Unexpectedly things happen that made the Plan possible Traditional Religion and Culture in a New Era Reimon Bachika,2017-12-04 Where will postmodern culture lead us in the twenty first century Will it destroy traditional cultures together with the old established religions that were its foundation These questions and the new concerns they evoke are explored in this important collection of original essays Contributors challenge entrenched assumptions about what many social scientists consider irreversible cultural trends These include cultural differentiation emphasis on individual identity movement toward religion as a private act rather than a community commitment and above all emphasis on the relativity of all knowledge and values The volume asserts three lines of argument in opposition to these trends The first is the teleological significance of traditional religions and archaic knowledge History can be said to have no goal but the same must not follow for human culture One can conceive individually of a hundred goals to live for However the quality of life cannot be that diverse Taken to the extreme cultural particularity and philosophical nihilism are insults to the life that emerged on our planet eons ago Second this volume emphasizes moral concern and the importance of universal values Ideas of human well being have been formulated from ancient times Religious beliefs invariably contain statements of value in the form of commandments and exhortations that express fundamental goals for a quality of life Third the nature of religion and spirituality is discussed Religion today has become controversial socially and marginal sociologically The role of religion in society is sometimes problematic or abused but it is also underestimated and misunderstood The authors suggest that contemporary religion might best be viewed as non ideological spiritual culture This in turn looks to a future in which religion and culture coalesce This volume includes an international cast of scholars from Japan the United States Canada the United Kingdom Germany Greece Italy New Zealand and Belgium All have engaged in research outside their own countries Taken as a whole this volume addresses issues of interest to those in the fields of futures studies religion and philosophy and in particular those concerned with human agency personal responsibility and public choice
