The Drama Magazine ... Paul Green, 1921 The Literary World , 1899 Shakspeare's Werke William Shakespeare, 1872 Sensibility, Reading and Illustration Ann Lewis, 2017-12-02 Eighteenth century sensibility has always been controversial In fact the term itself refers to complex forms of physical and emotional responsiveness and Lewis's study investigates the fictional exploration of various key problems of sentimental response that were at the heart of eighteenth century moral epistemological and aesthetic debates These are analysed in conjunction with some of the actual often emotional responses that the term its fictions and images have provoked through time including an indispensable survey of the varying construction of sensibility as an object of study and the polemics subtending its definition The verbal evocation of the visual in the form of spectacles and signs was understood in the eighteenth century as having an especially powerful impact Lewis provides a new reading of the theme of sensibility by analysing the textual images in three best selling novels from the mid century Graffigny's Lettres d'une Peruvienne Marivaux's La Vie de Marianne and Rousseau's Julie The examination of a largely neglected corpus of illustrations understood as readings of each text provides striking new evidence of the complexity thematic richness and duplicity of these spectacles whose power to provoke different reactions is perhaps their most interesting characteristic
