Sevilla,2008-05-23 This is a story about a girl in the Philippines who showed signs of autism until the age of five Her name is Marlyna She was six years old when World War II broke out in 1941 In her life story she takes us to evacuation places and to witness a Japanese soldier aim a shining bayonet at her pregnant aunt Well walk with her in the darkness treading on rocks among tall thorny shrubs where footpaths ended She was twelve when her parents separated and was eventually separated from her siblings as well Marlyna rejoiced as she was reunited with her mother and siblings in 1954 She vows not to be separated from them again She migrated to Canada with husband and daughter in 1967 and endures the frigid cold and the pangs of loneliness Nothing stands against her dream of bringing her mother and siblings to her new country Annie arrived first in 1969 the rest followed and her ambition was realized when her mother arrived in 1974 Marlynas dream to be reunited with her family was no longer a dream but a reality Marlyna believes that education is freedom the intangible asset that enriches ones life She takes courses in business writing and public speaking under government assistance Her Service Excellence Award in 1993 is her crowning achievement Now a Canadian snowbird in the Philippines since 2000 she works with community and church organizations She enjoys sharing her knowledge gained from abroad with her own people The Living Past is a story of the life struggle and triumphs of a girl who once had only spoke five words Marlyna believes that her experience with World War II her broken home and migration to the great country of Canada has made her a well seasoned grandmother Her first book a must read The Licensing Exam Review Guide in Nursing Home Administration James E. Allen,1997 Tales from Kentucky Nurses William Lynwood Montell,2015-02-20 This oral history shares stories of Kentucky nurses from frontier births to emergency rooms and from the early twentieth century to the present day From frontier times to the present day Kentucky nurses have served with intelligence and energy always ensuring that their patients received the best available care Folklorist and oral historian William Lynwood Montell collects nearly two hundred stories from these hard working men and women in Tales from Kentucky Nurses From humorous anecdotes to spine chilling coincidences tragic circumstances and heartwarming encounters the tales in this lively volume are recorded exactly as they were told to Montell This collection features anecdotes from the famous Frontier Nursing Service which provided essential care to families in remote areas of the state and whose leader Mary Breckinridge is remembered for her wit and kindness In addition Montell s interviewees share ghost stories and describe folk remedies like the practice of placing an axe under a woman s pillow during labor to cut the pain These firsthand accounts not only pay homage to an underappreciated profession but also preserve important aspects of Kentucky s history not likely to be recorded elsewhere Analysis of the Budget Bill of the State of California California.
