We Never Walk Alone Anita Byers,2018-11-07 Philip Rendell James eighteen years of age lost his parents in a car crash just after graduating from high school Disappointed and disillusioned with life he said his goodbyes to his sister and her husband and joined the Air Force Philip thought he was in for the long haul but you never know what God is going to do One of his few trips home in eight years of being in the Air Force Philip was at his nephew s little league game and it was love at first sight Down a couple of bleachers and to the right was Arabella her long chestnut brown hair pulled back in a ponytail that bounced around when she swung her head back and forth She was trying to make sense of this game Sports was never something she had an interest in When her coworker and friend Betsy invited her to come watch her son s ball game on this beautiful Saturday afternoon she decided to go She didn t have anything going on and being outside on a sunny Saturday would be nice She had spotted this handsome man in uniform and looking from one end of the ball field to the other gave her the ability to catch a glimpse of him without being obvious What pleased her more was that he was watching her Philip was discharged from the Air Force one year later He and Arabella married had four children Annabelle Marie Sarah Louise Philip Junior and David Seth all of whom are now grown and married with children and some with grandchildren of their own Philip had passed away and Arabella had just moved in with Sarah and her husband Matthew She had been living with Annabelle and her husband Richard Sarah grew up with a lot of unanswered questions Feeling scared and sometimes very alone she searched for answers While making some right and some wrong decisions she learned that God was always by her side As Sarah gets ready for a big family party the past comes back to haunt her You will see how Sarah lets God be God and ends up settling for nothing less than God s very best in her life Annabelle the oldest child is very confident and outgoing She is very sure of herself but she learns that things are rarely what you assume they are She needs God to carry her through an intimidating situation in her life Philip Junior the third child and the oldest boy is very independent self assured confident and successful Turning to God was the only way to get through this painful predicament that he and his family are going through Things are never as they seem when looking at someone s life and judgment can sometimes be harsh David the youngest child of the four may not be as successful as his big brother but he doesn t mind David loves God his family and his job but David learns he can trust God with anything Reading the Rabbit Kevin S. Reading McLuhan Reading Paula McDowell, 2023-02-21 Sixty years after Understanding Media Marshall McLuhan remains one of the best known and most influential intellectuals of the twentieth century Far beyond academia readers and non readers recognize his coinages such as the Gutenberg era the global village and the medium is the message A literary scholar by profession McLuhan was one of the first academics to recognize the new opportunities offered by radio and television to reach audiences beyond the readerships of scholarly journals His talks and appearances ushered in public intellectual debate concerning the electronic age Although his reputation waned in the 1970s the recent making available to the public of his extraordinary personal library of some six thousand books enables new kinds of analyses of McLuhan as a reader thinker and cultural force The essays here focus not so much on his media theory per se as on the habits and practices that animated his reading and on the larger questions of what reading and not reading mean. We don't need to agree with everything McLuhan says to make valuable use of his work. New resources offer us an unprecedented opportunity to revisit one fallible human reader whose texts and ideas are good to think with and against. This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Textual Practice.
