Ultra-talk David Kirby, 2007 In Ultra Talk David Kirby poses a simple question What makes a cultural phenomenon truly great Exploring a wide variety of king sized cultural monuments Kirby argues that one qualification for greatness is that a phenomenon be embraced by both the elite and the general public Further he argues it must be embraced repeatedly over time Kirby turns his critical eye to subjects that have been studied and written about sought after avidly discussed passionately and even resisted vigorously around the world Auto racing Dante folk music food Leonardo da Vinci films poetry religion striptease television and the internet are just some of the topics he examines In Rome heads of state kneel before Bernini's statue of Saint Teresa in ecstasy says Kirby and so do people who can't read And everyone watches TV Ultra Talk pays homage to the work of two towering writers and critics Johann Wolfgang von Goethe and Giacomo Leopardi both stated that a book was valid only if it had been accepted by both an intellectual elite and a vast public Kirby would have added a second requirement that the book's or cultural monument's popularity must have traction over time By standing on the shoulders of Goethe and Leopardi Kirby offers a way to read see and savor a post theoretical worldview that everybody can share
