Taking on Nippon

It seems foolhardy for anyone to take on Japanese-made household appliances with their own made-in-Malaysia alternative, but that was precisely what Pensonic did as it rose from retail outlet to manufacturer.

JOY LEE reports.

Pensonic's rapid expansion has been a surprise to many in the industry. The company, which was founded in 1988, has grown from a small retail outlet to a major manufacturer of household appliances.

At the time, the company was a small retail outlet. It was founded by a group of people who were passionate about household appliances.

Over the years, the company has expanded its product range to include a wide variety of household appliances, from refrigerators to air conditioners.

The company's success has been a testament to its commitment to quality and innovation. It has managed to compete effectively with established Japanese brands.

Today, Pensonic is a well-known name in the Malaysian household appliance market. Its products are sold in a wide range of outlets, from small shops to large department stores.

The company's growth has been a remarkable achievement. It has managed to establish a strong presence in the market and has become a household name.
