Liminal Spaces in Children's and Young Adult Literature Mark I. West,2024-03-12 Scholars in the field of children s literature studies began taking an interest in the concept of liminal spaces around the turn of the 21st century For the first time Liminal Spaces in Children s and Young Adult Literature Stories from the In Between brings together in one volume a collection of original essays on this topic by leading children s literature scholars The contributors in this collection take a wide variety of approaches to their explorations of liminal spaces in children s and young adult literature Some discuss how children's books portray the liminal nature of physical spaces such as the children's room in a library. Others deal with more abstract portrayals such as the imaginary space where Max goes to escape the reality of his bedroom in Maurice Sendak's Where the Wild Things Are. All of the contributors however provide keen insights into how liminal spaces figure in children's and young adult literature.

La Escuela, 19?? The Mother of All Booklists William Patrick Martin, 2014-12-24 The Mother of All Booklists The 500 Most Recommended Nonfiction Reads for Ages 3 to 103 is written for parents, grandparents and teachers unfamiliar with the bewildering array of award and recommended reading lists. This book is a long overdue composite of all the major booklists. It brings together over 100 of the most influential book awards and reading lists from leading magazines, newspapers, reference books, schools, libraries, parenting organizations and professional groups from across the country. The Mother of All Booklists is to reading books what the website Rotten Tomatoes is to watching movies, the ultimate one-stop synthesizing resource for finding out what is best. Mother is not the opinion of one book critic but the aggregate opinion of an army of critics. Organized into five age group lists, each with one hundred books: preschoolers ages 3-5, early readers ages 5-9, middle readers ages 9-13, young adults ages 13-17 and adults ages 18+. The Mother of All Booklists amalgamates the knowledge of the best English language booklists in the United States, including a few from Canada and Great Britain. Each of the 500 books is annotated, describing the contents of the book and suggesting why the book is unique and important. Each includes a picture of the book cover.

My School in the Rain Forest Margriet Ruurs, 2009-09-01 At a school that sits on the edge of the Sahara, students are learning to speak English from a teacher who stands in front of a Webcam in North America. These students are learning in a virtual classroom. In another part of the world, kids aren't waiting to ride the bus to school; they are waiting to hop in a boat that will take them to a school that floats on a river. And some kids don't mind heights, especially those who attend a school on the slope of a mountain in the Himalayas in one of the most remote corners of the earth. Margriet Ruurs contacted teachers and volunteers, many of whom took cameras in hand to photograph their schools and students. In this lively photo essay, readers get to know students from the arid plains of southern Afghanistan to the rain forests of Guatemala who are pursuing their dreams of a brighter future.
