Szarmach,1986-01-01 Old English prose before the late tenth century is examined in this collection of hitherto unpublished essays Using a variety of techniques the authors explore well known and lesser known texts in search of a better understanding of why how and by whom the manuscripts were produced Part I of the collection contains six studies of Alfredian prose the Soliloquies the Pastoral Care and Consolation of Philosophy all of which are translations traditionally associated with King Alfred Part II contains nine essays on various prose works outside of the Alfredian milieu including the Old English Dialogues the Old English Bede the Chronicle and Laws and various religious works The authors emphasize the importance of a fresh look at Latin backgrounds and sources and the need to return to manuscript evidence for new insights As a group they argue for sympathetic contextual analysis urging scholars in the field to reexamine the prose of the earlier Old English period to find cultural and literary value and significance A bibliographical appendix supplements the Greenfield Robinson bibliography for the period ending in 1982 The contributions in this volume complement the eleven essays found in The Old English Homily and Its Background edited by Paul E Szarmach and Bernard F Huppe also published by SUNY Press
