Communication Skills Journal

This journal will show you how I grew as a communicator over the last 16 weeks. You will see 5 different journal entries. These also show growth through hardship which I find to be an interesting topic.

Communication Competence

My strengths as a communicator are communicating with friends, acquaintances, and in meetings. I attribute a lot of that to my mission and speaking opportunities in church.

Recently, I feel I have also become better at communicating with my supervisor at work due to issues we have had. I have had to stand up for myself. This has been one example in my life lately of becoming a more mindful communicator, seeing different viewpoints, and strengthening weaknesses.

I feel I could become better in the areas of group discussions and strangers. I often feel that others have more important or insightful things to say. Also, I have been shy since childhood so talking to strangers is a weakness I'm working on.

Perception and Self

I think my family immensely impacted my perception of others. I also believe my church has impacted my perception of others. I found the primacy effect very intriguing that we are more likely to put more value in the first information we know about a person. I want to work on putting as much value on the information learned after the first impression. One of my best friends scared me the first time I met her. She is built and intimidating but I'm glad I gave myself the opportunity to get to know her better.

Perception of self is such a struggle for me. I'm so hard on myself. I'm really good at comparing myself to others. I like the concept that the simple question of "tell me about yourself" can be super telling about your level of self-esteem. That makes me want to work harder on my self-esteem.

Guerrero, Kory Floyd, 2006-08-15 Nonverbal Communication in Close Relationships provides a synthesis of research on nonverbal communication as it applies to interpersonal interaction focusing on the close relationships of friends, family, and romantic partners. Authors Laura K. Guerrero and Kory Floyd support the premise that nonverbal communication is a product of biology, social learning, and relational context. They overview six prominent nonverbal theories and show how each is related to bio-evolutionary or sociocultural perspectives. Their work focuses on various functions of nonverbal communication, emphasizing those that are most relevant to the initiation, maintenance, and dissolution of close relationships. Throughout the book, Guerrero and Floyd highlight areas where research is either contradictory or inconclusive, hoping that in the years to come, scholars will have a clearer understanding of these issues. The volume concludes with a discussion of practical implications that emerge from the scholarly literature on nonverbal communication in relationships, an essential component for understanding relationships in the real world. Nonverbal Communication in Close Relationships makes an important contribution to the development of our understanding not only of relationship processes but also of the specific workings of nonverbal communication. It will serve as a springboard for asking new questions and advancing new theories about nonverbal communication. It is intended for scholars and advanced students in personal relationship study, social psychology, interpersonal communication, nonverbal communication, family studies, and family communication. It will also be a helpful resource for researchers, clinicians, and couples searching for a better understanding of the complicated roles that nonverbal cues play in relationships. Nonverbal Communication Judee K. Burgoon, Valerie Manusov, Laura K. Guerrero, 2021-09-06 The newly revised edition of this groundbreaking textbook provides a comprehensive overview of the theory, research, and applications of nonverbal communication. Authored by three of the foremost scholars in the field and drawing on multidisciplinary research from communication studies, psychology, linguistics, and family studies, Nonverbal Communication speaks to today's students with modern examples that illustrate nonverbal communication in their lived experiences. It emphasizes nonverbal codes as well as the functions they perform to help students see how nonverbal cues work with one another and with the verbal system through which we create and understand messages and shows how consequential nonverbal means of communicating are in people's lives. Chapters cover the social and biological foundations of nonverbal communication as well as the expression of emotions, interpersonal conversation, deception, power, and influence.
