North West Business Studies Grade 12013:

Multinational Corporations from Emerging Markets A. Nölke,2014-07-01 The rise of multinational corporations MNCs from emerging markets has been a major development during the last decade An important feature of emerging market MNCs is their close relationship with home states The book investigates this special kind of relationship and explores how it affects the cross border activities of these corporations

Vernacular Medicine in Colonial India Shinjini Das,2019-03-14 Interrelated histories of colonial medicine market and family reveal how Western homeopathy was translated and made vernacular in colonial India

Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,1998-07

Justice for Marcus Garvey Julius Garvey,2024-11-19 Join thought leaders fighting to win the posthumous pardon of Marcus Garvey one of the most influential figures in Black history Marcus Garvey 1887 1940 was a Black political activist journalist entrepreneur and orator who founded the Universal Negro Improvement Association and African Communities League which had a following of more than six million African descended people worldwide Despite his massive popularity this Jamaican born international leader was wrongfully sentenced to prison by the U S government on trumped up mail fraud charges While exoneration efforts began immediately and have continued since his sentencing a new groundswell movement for Garvey s posthumous pardon is underway led by his nonagenarian still spirited son Julius Garvey Edited by Julius Garvey Justice for Marcus Garvey is a collection of informative essays and personal narratives about the senior Garvey s life and work demonstrating his essential influence on current social justice movements The book features contributions from thought leaders and activists including a foreword by bestselling author Ta Nehisi Coates Contributors include Paul Coates founder director of Black Classic Press Goulida Downer president of the Caribbean American Political Action Committee C PAC Justin Hansford professor at Howard University School of Law and Maulana Karenga widely known as the creator of the holiday Kwanzaa Justice for Marcus Garvey is a tribute and rallying cry for one of the preeminent champions of Black pride and self determination

The First Right Bradley R. Simpson,Associate Professor of History and Asian Studies Bradley R Simpson,2025-10-14 The idea of self determination is one of the most significant in modern international politics For more than a century diplomats lawyers scholars activists and ordinary people in every part of the globe have wrestled with its meaning and implications for decolonization human rights sovereignty and international order The First Right argues that there was no one self determination but a century long contest between contending visions of sovereignty and rights that were as varied and changing as the nature of sovereignty itself In this globe spanning narrative Simpson argues that self determination s meaning has often emerged not just from the United Nations but from the claims of movements and peoples on the margins of international society Powerful states he shows persistently rejected expansive self determination claims arguing that these threatened great power conflict the dissolution of international order or the unravelling of the world economy Pacific Island territories indigenous peoples regional and secessionist movements and transnational solidarity groups among others rejected the efforts of large powerful states to define self determination along narrow lines Instead international historian Bradley R Simpson shows they offered expansive visions of economic political and cultural sovereignty ranging far beyond the movement for decolonization with which they are often associated As they did so these movements and groups helped to vernacularize self determination as a language of social justice and rights for people around the world An ambitious work of global breadth on a key geopolitical issue The First Right transforms how we think about the making of the twentieth century world order and the place of the global South and decolonization in it

Cuba's Cosmopolitan Enclaves Frances Peace Sullivan,2025-05-27 This book explores how northeastern Cuba became a hub of international solidarity and transnational movements in the 1920s and 1930s showing how the Oriente Province emerged as a focal point for global visions of resistance

Along the Integral Margin Stephen Campbell,2022-08-15 In recent years anthropologists have focused on informal unfree and other nonnormative labor arrangements and labeled them as noncapitalist In Along the Integral Margin Stephen Campbell pushes back against this idea and shows that these labor arrangements are in fact important aspects of capitalist development and that the erroneous noncapitalist label contributes to obscuring current capitalist relations Through powerful intimate ethnographic narratives of the lives and struggles of residents of a squatter settlement in Myanmar Campbell challenges narrow conceptions of capitalism and asserts that nonnormative labor is not marginal but rather centrally important to Myanmar s economic development Campbell s narrative approach brings individuals who are often marginalized in accounts of contemporary Myanmar to the forefront and raises questions about the diversity of work in capitalism

Conflicted Identities Alexandra Staub,2015-10-23 Nation states have long used representational architecture to create symbolic identities for public consumption both at home and abroad Government buildings major ensembles and urban plans have a visibility that lends them authority while their repeated portrayals in the media cement their image as icons of a shared national character Existing in tandem with this official self however is a second often divergent identity represented by the vast realm of domestic space defined largely by those who occupy it as well as those with a vested interest in its cultural meaning Using both historical inquiry and visual spatial and film analysis this book explores the interaction of these two identities and its effect on political control class status and gender roles Conflicted Identities examines the politicization of both public and domestic space especially in societies undergoing rapid cultural transformation through political social or economic expansion or restructuring when cultural identity is being rapidly modernized shifted or realigned to conform to new demands Using specific examples from a variety of national contexts the book examines how vernacular housing legislation marketing and media influence a large but often underexposed domestic culture that runs parallel to a more publicly represented one As a case in point the book examines West Germany from the end of World War II to the early 1970s to probe more deeply into the mechanisms of such cultural dichotomy On a national level post war West Germany demonstratively rejected Nazi era values by rebuilding cities based on interwar modernist
