The Lutheran Hymnary, 1913

I Wait in the Night Fr. Rupert Allen, Cong. Orat., 2025-09-08 What drives a man to commit murder And what can bring a murderer an embittered atheist to love God The story of Servant of God Jacques Fesch could have been one of potential cut short in infamy Instead it's the story of a man who found faith on death row and struggled in his last days to love God even while human emotion threatened to overwhelm him I Wait in the Night presents the prison journal of Fesch translated by and with commentary from Fr Rupert Allen Cong Orat In a frank and sometimes brutally honest way these pages tell the story of the hope that has come to a young man in a five by two meter cell while he waits to be executed for a murder he committed in the course of a robbery This is not a Damascus experience but the slowly dawning realization of the love of God for all his children It is a story of mercy forgiveness and redemption There in the dark solitude of death row Fesch found light That light was carried by his family the prison chaplain a monk who befriended him and a lawyer who cared for his soul as much as his case But above all he found the light in his own encounter with Jesus Christ
