Peripheral Vision A Collection Of Short Stories:

Peripheral Vision Joan L. Cannon, 2015-04-15 A wonderful collection of short stories with a Southern Flavor and a woman's literary point of view

The Postcolonial City and its Subjects Rashmi Varma, 2011-08-05 This book considers twentieth and twenty first century literary and cultural formations of the postcolonial city and the constitution of new subjects within it Varma offers a reading of both historical and contemporary debates on urbanism through the filter of postcolonial fictions and the cultural fields surrounding and containing them In particular she presents a representational history of London Nairobi and Bombay in the twentieth and twenty first centuries and engages three key theoretical frameworks the city within postcolonial theory and culture its troubled salience in the construction of postcolonial public spheres and identities from local rural ethnic tribal and regional to national cosmopolitan and transnational subjects and spaces postcolonial fictions as constituting a new world literary space and as a site of the articulation of contending narratives of urban space global culture and postcolonial development and postcolonial feminist citizenship as a universal political project challenging current neo liberal and post neo liberal contractions and eviscerations of public spaces and rights

My Mind Is Made of Crumbs Cannon, Joan, 2015-03-12 The poems in this collection were written over a period of nearly half a century They look backward observe the recent past and the present and include subjects that have little reference to history and chronology because they apply to all of life Then Now and Whenever offer verbal pictures autobiography a bit of philosophy and a little humor in varied forms
