Measuring Spiritual Maturity Randy Tompkins, 2019-10-21

Jesus commissioned His apostles and by extension the church to make disciples. Many church leaders have come to the conclusion that attending worship services and Bible study classes will result in making disciples. A review of statistical reports indicates a majority of church members and attenders do not believe this process will work or they have come to the conclusion they do not want to become disciples. The 2010 US Religion Census report indicated 79% of the 150,686,156 members, children and other attenders did not attend worship services. It also reported over 60% of the same group did not attend Bible study classes. In 2014, one of the major denominations in the United States reported 63% of church members did not attend worship services and 62% did not attend Bible study classes. There are literally thousands of spiritual surveys available to church leaders. A majority of these surveys develop conclusions based on a single survey being administered or two surveys being administered several months apart. If a disciple making process is to be effective, there needs to be a method of measuring the progress of individuals moving toward spiritual maturity. This type of measurement would produce a visual of spiritual growth, spiritual decline or spiritual non growth. The only way to measure the spiritual progress of an individual is to create a measurement of the various elements of the spiritual life. The process of measuring spiritual maturity in this book is self contained within the participating church and the responses of the participating individuals are highly confidential and warehoused by the participating church.

Am I really a sinner? Mark Schonebaum, 2024-08-14. Are you really a sinner? When asked this question, most people will say that they are a good person without stopping to think that even good people can be sinners. In fact, we are all sinners, but the problem is that many of us simply don't know what sin is, which is what the author explores in this book. Get answers to questions such as: How can we define what sin truly is? How does sin hurt us and our relationships? How can we eliminate sin? What must we do to find salvation from sin? The author emphasizes that to follow Jesus, you must follow everything, not just what you like. The whole purpose of following Jesus is to align with God, not for God to align with you. God not only tells us that we are sinners, but He sent Jesus to cleanse us of all sin. We are no longer condemned by our sin; we are set free in Jesus.

Youth Ministry Bi-Vocational Survival Guide Rick Flann, 2016-04-27. Youth Ministry Bi-Vocational Survival Guide is written specifically for the bi-vocational pastor and is chock full of nuggets of gold. Authors Rick Flann and Chris Pope explain how to manage time well, prioritize effectively and lead in a way that empowers both the bi-vocational pastor and those they lead and care for on a daily basis. The Apostle Paul, a tent maker, was one of the greatest people ever to walk the face of this earth. He knew what his mission was and he was willing to do whatever it took to accomplish the task that God had set before him. Paul was bi-vocational. He proclaimed the Gospel, planted churches and pastored people, yet he never demanded his right to a paycheck from the church. 1 Cor 9:12. Maybe you are a modern day tent maker, but unlike the Apostle Paul, who always seemed to come out on top as a spiritual super star, you are sinking under the pressures of multiple jobs, both inside and outside of the church, school, family or countless other obligations that you face each and every day. Take courage and know that you are not alone. The Youth Ministry Bi-Vocational

Survival Guide was developed especially with you in mind to enable you to succeed and still minister effectively to those you are leading
