

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Working in the Center for Composite Material was interesting. During these six months of internship, I learnt a lot on composite science, especially on composite manufacturing processes like RTM or VARTM.

I have to thank Dr Aurimas Dominauskas for advising me during this project.

Therefore, I am grateful to the people in the CCM for the chance to make this experiment. I especially want to thank Professor Suresh Advani and Docteur Gilles Ausias for giving me the possibility to attend the Center for Composite Materials.

Further on, I want to thank the students and interns in the CCM who made this demanding time joyful but always efficient.

Fundraising Management in a Changing Museum World explains how cultural organizations can successfully create sustainable fundraising programs that will increase financial support and stabilize revenue during times of change. Drawing on the authors' extensive experience, this book provides guidance that will enable readers to establish and maintain an efficient and effective fundraising program. Demonstrating that a strategic fundraising management plan is critical for identifying areas of growth, the authors also clarify how it helps to leverage an institution's resources and connections and ensure that time and budget are invested into the right activities. Readers will learn how to develop a plan for their organization, choose appropriate methods of solicitation for their audiences, and identify the roles of employees and volunteers in the process. Fundraising Management in a Changing Museum World is relevant to practitioners working in many different types and sizes of institutions around the world. The book is essential reading for development professionals as well as other museum practitioners, leaders, and volunteers.
