

Outdoor Play Learning Story

Experience: Off To The Park

Date: 19-July-2019

Written by: Lorina

We had such a great afternoon at the park. Hand in hand with our friends we walked to the park. We saw many things along way flowers, pebbles and many different types of rocks. When we got to the park we saw the tall trees, with their leaves swaying in the breeze. We saw many different types of flowers, pink and yellow and dandelions. They smelt so nice and sweet. We touched the rocks we found on the ground. Some were rough and some were smooth. Puddles of water were collected in crevices amongst the rocks, we took our shoes off and danced in the puddles of water. Cool water trickling between our toes. We played ball games. We threw, we caught, we kicked. Oh what a wonderful day at the park!

Young Children's Community Building in Action Louise Gwenneth Phillips, Jenny Ritchie, Lavina Dynevor, Jared Lambert, Kerry Moroney, 2019-07-04 Rethinking the concepts of citizenship and community in relation to young children this groundbreaking text examines the ways in which indigenous understandings and practices applied in early childhood settings in Australia and New Zealand encourage young children to demonstrate their care and concern for others and so in turn perceive themselves as part of a larger community Young Children's Community Building in Action acknowledges global variations in the meanings of early childhood education of citizenship and community building and challenges widespread invisibility and disregard of Indigenous communities Through close observation and examination of early years settings in Australia and New Zealand chapters demonstrate how practices guided by Aboriginal and M ori values support and nurture children's personal and social development as individuals and as citizens in a wider community Exploring what young children's citizenship learning and action looks like in practice and how this may vary within and across communities the book provides a powerful account of effective pedagogical approaches which have been long excluded from mainstream dialogues Written for researchers and students of early childhood education and care this book provides insight into what citizenship can be for young children and how Indigenous cultural values shape ways of knowing being doing and relating

Democratic Policies and Practices in Early Childhood Education Linda Mitchell, 2018-10-24 This book uses case studies of Aotearoa New Zealand policy formulation and practice to explore early childhood education and care ECEC as a site for democratic citizenship and social justice Addressing fundamental questions about the purpose of education it argues for explicit values focusing on children and childhood as a basis for ECEC policy to replace discourses of economic investment and child vulnerability that are dominant within policy goals in many countries A commitment to democracy and equity is a good place to start Aotearoa New Zealand is of special interest because of its world renowned ECE curriculum Te Wh riki which is based on principles of social justice respect for rights and an aim to support children growing up in a democracy The curriculum upholds M ori rights to tino rangatiratanga absolute authority over their lives and resources Yet Aotearoa New Zealand's extreme market policies and harsh labour laws during recent periods run contrary to ideals of democracy and are puzzlingly inconsistent with curriculum principles The book starts with an analysis and critique of global trends in ECEC in countries that share capitalist mixed economies of welfare and where competition and marketisation have become dominant principles It then analyses ideas about children childhood and ECEC within a framework of democracy going back to the Athenian origins of democracy and including recent literature on meanings and traditions of democracy in education The book uses vivid examples from researching curriculum pedagogy and assessment practices within Aotearoa New Zealand ECEC settings and collective action to influence policy change in order to illustrate opportunities for democratic education It concludes by examining what conditions might be needed for integrated and democratic ECEC provision in Aotearoa New Zealand and what changes are necessary for the future It offers a compass not a map it points to promising directions and provides insights into issues in ECEC policy and practice that are of current global concern I'm Not Getting Them Ready for Kindergarten Kristen Day,2024-12-30 Teachers don't have to cut out penguin beaks anymore You can put your weather bear back in the cupboard or bring it outside and you can take the behavior chart off the wall This book is your permission slip to break up with outdated and ineffective practices in your early childhood classroom and replace them with the magic of play based learning This helpful guide challenges outdated preschool practices in a kind and compelling way inviting you to reflect on your own practices and adjust them based on current research and what is truly developmentally appropriate for young children It provides tools and language to use to show the people outside your classroom parents administrators other teachers down the hall that play is learning Each chapter is practical conscience and meant to be read in the order and at the pace that is best for you and your class Full of stories from the author's own play journey I'm Not Getting Them Ready for Kindergarten is key reading for early childhood educators who are ready to step outside the restrictions of an unnecessarily academic system and settle into the magic of play and child led learning
