10/04/2022 9:00 - 9:45am	John reported his feelings of anxiety have reduced in intensity, although he still feels "somewhat anxious pretty much all the time". Spent the session discussing anxiety coping mechanisms including how John can practice replacing anxiety triggers with calming thoughts. John presented neatly and was well groomed. He showed normal awareness of his presenting symptoms. No suicidal ideation present. Compliance with medication is good. Will continue with current treatment plan and weekly sessions.
10/11/2022 9:05 - 9:50am	Session focused on an event at work: John is struggling with feelings of low self-worth, saying he feels like he "isn't good at anything he does". Practiced replacing negative self-talk with positive self-talk. John's feelings of anxiety are associated with low self-esteem. Compliance with medication is good. Insight into anxiety is normal. John will focus on strengthening professional relationships with colleagues. Weekly sessions to continue.
10/18/2022 9:00 - 9:45am	John says he is "enjoying work a bit more". John attended a work event and said it made him feel "better about his relationships". John has demonstrated an improvement with his feelings of low self-esteem. Continue working on this area. John arrived to session promptly and was neatly dressed and well groomed. John's anxiety continues to decrease in intensity. Continue with current treatment plan.
10/25/2022 9:00 - 9:45am	John says he feels "better" but still can't "shake the anxiety feeling". Session focused on identifying causes of anxiety (apart from work). Anxiety may be associated with social relationships. John is struggling to find time to maintain his friendships. John will reach out to friends and organize a social event. Work anxiety has reduced significantly. John is showing improvement. Current treatment plan to continue.
11/01/2022 9:05 - 9:50am	John caught up with a friend and said he opened up about his work-related struggles, saying the conversation made him feel "so much better". John's anxiety at work continues to reduce. He practices replacing negative self-talk with positive self-talk and this appears to be improving his anxiety. Treatment plan will continue, but will reduce therapy sessions to once every fortnight. John will continue focusing on strengthening his relationships with friends, family members, and colleagues.

Counseling helps bridge the gap from theory to practice. It covers the day to day elements of practice in agencies and schools that are often missing from the theory based courses. Chapters are packed with case examples, activities, voices from the field, and self assessments including tools for assessing and addressing ethnocentrism, intersectionality, and bias in counseling practice. This resource orients clinical students to the field while providing them with the day to day skills they need to thrive. Special focus on Expectations and how to get the most out of the supervision process. Assessment and intervention with clients in danger and crisis. Wellness and developing healthy work and personal habits to carry through one's entire career. Readers see clearly how to Apply the laws and ethics in everyday clinical practice. Work with special issues: neuropsych and psychopharmacology and populations. Market and position oneself in the job market with an eye toward growing marketing a counseling practice after graduation. Included in each chapter: Several self assessment activities encouraging self reflection and self assessment on the concepts of the chapter. Voices from the field: features providing firsthand in the trenches perspectives from counselors who have been there and done that. Realistic case examples challenging readers to apply knowledge and skills to realistic cases they are likely to encounter in the field. Included are separate chapters on Relationship building, Goal setting, Record keeping, The integration of theory into practice.

Clinical Documentation with Children and Adolescents Amy Marschall, 2023-08-29. This book addresses the unique challenges therapists face when documenting their clinical work with children, providing insight into what ethical, appropriate, and culturally competent practice looks like. Clinical documentation is vital for ethical and legal practice, and good documentation helps clinicians leave room for client centered and age appropriate interventions such as play therapy. Beginning with an overview of the important considerations unique to providers working with children, Amy Marschall offers guidance on all aspects of clinical documentation such as intakes, treatment plans, mental status examinations, progress notes, safety plans, and more. Each chapter includes specific examples of clinical situations with guidance on how to document these situations effectively. With chapters on client confidentiality and telehealth, as well as special attention being paid to cultural awareness including race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, and socioeconomic status, this book includes blank templates of treatment plans, progress notes, and risk assessments for therapists to use in their practice. This book is essential for any mental health professional who works with children in both individual and family work, including psychologists, licensed clinical social workers, licensed professional counselors, mental health counselors, marriage and family therapists, play therapists, school counselors, and therapist interns.
