Reflections on the Constitutionalisation of International Economic Law ,2013-12-09 This book collects a large number of essays written in honour of Professor Ernst Ulrich Petersmann by his friends colleagues and former students The respective contributions cover the fields of international economic law international constitutional law transnational constitutionalism EU law and human rights The broad thematic scope of this book mirrors the extremely large field of interests of the jubilarian Paying tribute to a particular trait of Professor Petersmann s character who was always both a dogmatic thinker and a curious researcher the authors try to cover both structural issues of law as well as most recent developments in particular in the field of international economic law Construing the constitution of international economic law in both senses of this activity was an aim throughout Professor Petersmann's academic career and this goal stands also at the heart of this book

Football and International Relations under Francoism, 1937-1975 Juan Antonio Simón, 2024-10-03 This book shines a light on the specific role football played in relation to the international relations of the Franco regime in mid twentieth century Spain In the 35 years of the dictatorship of General Francisco Franco sport specifically football as the main mass sport was often used as a tool at the service of the political and diplomatic interests of the regime and this volume analyses how Franco's government mainly through its Ministry of Foreign Affairs used football as part of its foreign policy strategy to promote the international image of the dictatorship Prestige international tours and friendly matches the European successes of Real Madrid CF and of the national team and the organisation of sporting events such as the 1964 European Nations Cup were used as instruments to strengthen the country's geopolitical interests This book responds to an important bibliographical gap that exists in relation to both research on Franco's regime and the study of the role that sport played under Franco and in comparison with other totalitarian regimes such as fascism and Nazism Football and International Relations under Francoism 1937-1975 is an ideal resource for academics in sports history football history and international relations studies as well as those with an interest in Spanish history and the study of totalitarianism in Europe

Non-State Actors and Sustainable Development in Brazil Eduardo Gonçalves Gresse, 2022-11-23 This book investigates how non state actors have become key drivers of the diffusion of the UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development in Brazil The UN ranks Brazil as the most biodiverse country in the world but the country's environment has never been under greater threat with the rise of multiple crises bringing mounting challenges to socioeconomic development and environmental protection As state support has fallen away non state actors have actively engaged and eventually mobilized other social actors towards the promotion of the SDGs and the implementation of the UN agenda This book asks why it is that non state actors have dedicated so much time effort and resources to promote a non binding agenda that was ratified by and is mainly assigned to state actors Looking at the roles of academia civil society and the private sector the book explores the different ways in which these social actors make sense of and translate the 2030 Agenda into practice within their respective local contexts Drawing on extensive fieldwork this book sheds light on a series of challenges opportunities and contradictions within the global agenda and its implementation Assessing what the Brazil case can teach us about the diffusion of the 2030 Agenda and the SDGs more broadly this book will be of interest to academics in the field of Sustainable Development Latin America Studies and Environmental Politics as well as sustainable development researchers and policy makers
