Grainger the Modernist Suzanne Robinson, Kay Dreyfus, 2016-03-09 Unaccountably Percy Grainger has remained on the margins of both American music history and twentieth century modernism This volume reveals the well known composer of popular gems to be a self described hyper modernist who composed works of uncompromising dissonance challenged the conventions of folk song collection and adaptation re visioned the modern orchestra experimented with ego less composition and designed electronic machines intended to supersede human application Grainger was far from being a self sufficient maverick working in isolation Through contact with innovators such as Ferruccio Busoni L on Theremin and Henry Cowell promotion of the music of modern French and Spanish schools appreciation of vernacular jazz and folk musics as well as with the study and transcription of non Western music he contested received ideas and proposed many radical new approaches By reappraising Grainger s social and historical connectedness and exploring the variety of aspects of modernity seen in his activities in the British American and Australian contexts the authors create a profile of a composer propagandist and visionary whose modernist aesthetic paralleled that of the most advanced composers of his day and in some cases anticipated their practical experiments introduces Grainger's forebears, parents, friends, wife and himself before moving on to his views on composition, performance and the musical world. In these sketches Grainger addresses such topics as racial and national identity, the meaning of work, physical culture, language reform, sexual practice and artistic patronage. Grainger also probes the nature of musical genius, discussing a broad range of composers including Igor Stravinsky, Thomas Beecham, Frederick Delius, Edvard Grieg, Charles Stanford, Cyril Scott, Fritz Kreisler, Donald Tovey, Ferruccio Busoni and Balfour Gardiner. Among the works of his own that Grainger most featured are his The Warriors, Music for an Imaginary Ballet, Colonial Song, the Lincolnshire Posy series of band pieces, his greatest hit Country Gardens and his many settings of English folk music. Written in Grainger's own self-created Nordic English as well as translated from Danish, the language of his most intimate confessions, Self-Portrait of Percy Grainger sheds light on some of the most revealing details of the composer's life. The sketches trace Grainger's changing self-perception from the romantically tinged, even lustful views of his forties and fifties through a period of wistfulness in his sixties to the bitterness and self-loathing of his old age. The volume also includes several of Grainger's own drawings as well as both public and private photographs. A fascinating and revealing collection of vignettes, this extraordinary book will appeal to instructors, students and enthusiasts in musicology, music history, cultural studies and Australian, British and American history.

Musical Courier and Review of Recorded Music, 1916 Readings in the Geography of North Dakota
 Brian Goodey, R. J. Eidem, 1968 Musical America, 1916 The Story of Your Life James Lambie, 2010

The intriguing story and turbulent history of a paper Charles Dickens praised for its range of information and profundity of knowledge and which Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother simply endorsed with the remark 'Of course I read The Sporting Life.' It was the Queen Mother's love of horseracing that made her such an avid reader of the Life and coverage of that sport forms the core of this book, but there is so much more to fascinate the reader, including eyewitness accounts of the first fight for the heavyweight championship of the world and Captain Webb's heroic Channel swim of 1875. Highlights in the history of cricket, football and rugby are also featured, while chapters on coursing and greyhound racing rank alongside surreal reports on ratting contests and songbird singing competitions. And for 30 years Tommy Wisdom made his motoring reports unique by competing against the best at Brooklands, Le Mans and in many Monte Carlo rallies, while Henry Longhurst's golfing column was simply the best. The paper's strident campaigns for racing reforms are also chronicled along with its coverage of major news stories from Fred Archer's shocking suicide to its own untimely demise. Its travails in the law courts are documented from its first year when it was forced to change its title to its last when it had to pay libel damages to the training team of Lynda and Jack Ramsden and their jockey Kieren Fallon. A higher price was paid by its French correspondent who was killed in a duel over an article he had written while the terrible toll the First World War took on the nation's sporting heroes is catalogued by the Life's embedded army correspondent against a background of political bungling that is being repeated today.
