

Space Trips

The bus ride started at 6:15 in the morning. It was cold, dark, and everyone was tired, except for me. I was so excited about the trip, I couldn't possibly be tired. The bus ride was very long and all-together boring. It took us a whole six and a half hours to get there. I colored in a My Little Pony coloring book. Finally we arrived.

When I got into my room it smelled really bad. I put my Toy Story sheets onto my bed and held my nose while waiting for everybody else. Then it was time to go learn about space. When we met our leader I was so excited. His name was Brandon, and he was young, fun, and energetic. He really made everything fun.

The best part about the whole thing was probably being with friends and the awesome simulators. There was the G-force, 5 DF chair, and the MAT, and my favorite, the Space Shot. The G-Force was awesome, but it made me feel pretty sick.

Another thing that made me sick was some of the food at camp. The best food was hamburger helper or chicken fingers. Everything else was chewy, and all the same color.

Above all I had an awesome time at Space camp. I learned a lot and had fun.

Preparing To Teach Writing James D. Williams,2003-03 Preparing to Teach Writing Research Theory and Practice Third Edition is a comprehensive survey of theories research and methods associated with teaching composition successfully The primary goal is to provide practicing and prospective teachers with the knowledge they need to be effective teachers of writing and to prepare them for the many challenges they will face in the classroom Overall the third edition of Preparing to Teach Writing is clearer and more comprehensive than the previous editions It combines the best of the old with new information and features The discussions and references to foundational studies that helped define the field of rhetoric and composition are preserved in this edition Also preserved is most of the pedagogical apparatus that characterized the first two editions research and theory are examined with the aim of informing teaching New in the Third Edition a more thorough discussion of the history of rhetoric from its earliest days in ancient Greece to the first American composition courses offered at Harvard University in 1874 a major revision of the examination of major approaches to teaching writing current traditional rhetoric new rhetoric romantic rhetoric writing across the curriculum social theoretic rhetoric postmodern rhetoric and post postmodern rhetoric considering their strengths and weaknesses an extension of the discussion of strengths and weaknesses of major approaches to its logical conclusion Williams advocates an epistemic approach to writing instruction that demonstrably leads to improved writing instruction when implemented effectively a more detailed account of the phonics whole language debate that continues to puzzle many teachers and parents a new focus on why grammar instruction alone does not lead to better writing the difference between grammar and usage and how to teach grammar and usage effectively an expanded section on Chicano English that now includes a discussion of Spanglish more information on outcome objectives the Council of Writing Program Administrators statement of learning outcomes for first year composition courses has been included to help high school teachers better understand how to prepare high school students for college writing and to help those in graduate programs prepare for teaching assistantships in first year composition courses and a more comprehensive analysis of assessment that considers such important factors as the validity reliability predictability cost fairness and politics of assessment and the effects on teaching of state mandated testing and also provides an expanded section on portfolios
