Fable

The Scorpion and the Frog

One day, a Scorpion looked around at the mountain where he lived and decided that he should live in another place. So he went on a journey through the forests and hills. He climbed over rocks and under vines and kept going until he reached a river.

The river was wide and swift, and the Scorpion stopped to see how to cross the river. He couldn't see any way across. He tried to find a way to cross the river, but he couldn't. As a result, he thought that he might have to turn back.

Suddenly, he saw a Frog sitting under a tree near from the bank of the stream on the other side of the river. The Scorpion asked the Frog to help him to cross the river. "Hello Mr. Frog!" called the scorpion across the water, "Would you please give me a ride on your back across the river?" "Well now, Mr. Scorpion! How do I know that if I try to help you, you won't try to sting me?" asked the frog. "Because," the scorpion replied, "If I try to sting you, then I would die too, for you see I cannot swim!" The Frog accepted to take the Scorpion on his back to get him to the other bank of the river.

The Scorpion rode on the back of the Frog. The Frog swam into the river. But he stayed near the surface so the scorpion would not drown. In midstream, the Scorpion stung the Frog. The Frog began to feel very tired. "You fool!" croaked the frog, "Now we shall both die! Why did you do that?" The Scorpion replied sadly, "I could not help myself. I am a Scorpion. It is my nature to sting." As he spoke, they both began to sink into the river. Then, the Frog and the Scorpion disappeared beneath the water.

"Sometimes we can't overcome our nature, even if it works against our interest."
