Interchange Fourth Edition is a fully revised edition of Interchange the world's most successful series for adult and young adult learners of North American English. The course has been revised to reflect the most recent approaches to language teaching and learning. It remains the innovative series teachers and students have grown to love while incorporating suggestions from teachers and students all over the world. This edition offers updated content in every unit, grammar practice and opportunities to develop speaking and listening skills. Interchange Fourth Edition features contemporary topics and a strong focus on both accuracy and fluency. Its successful multi-skills syllabus integrates themes, grammar functions, vocabulary and pronunciation. The underlying philosophy of the course remains that language is best learned when it's used for meaningful communication.

Reframing the Curriculum Susan Santone, 2018-09-03 Reframing the Curriculum is a practical hands-on guide to weaving the concepts of healthy communities, democratic societies and social justice into academic disciplines. Developed for future and practicing teachers, this volume is perfect for teacher education courses in instructional design, social foundations and general education as well as for study in professional learning communities. The author outlines the philosophies, movements and narratives shaping the future both in and out of classrooms and then challenges readers to consider the larger story and respond with curriculum makeovers that engage students in solving problems in their schools, communities and the larger world. The book's proven method for designing units gives educators across grades and disciplines the tools to bring sustainability and social justice into experiential, project-based instructional approaches. Pedagogical features include specific examples and templates that offer readers a framework for reworking their units and courses while meeting required standards and incorporating innovative classroom practices. Activities and discussion questions that bring the content to life and establish ties with the curriculum. eResources including a Facilitator's Guide offering examples of fully developed units created with this model and an editable template for redesigning existing units.
