Field Day

By Brenda Kovach

Mario pulled a thick rope out from under a gymnastics mat. "I found what we need for the tug-of-war!" he shouted.
"Great, bring it over here," said Ms. Carroll. She pointed to a space on the floor between a set of orange cones and a stack of buckets.
"Looks like we're all set for field day," Mario told his best friend, Priah. Smiling, they bumped fists.
"Field day is the perfect way to spend the last day of school," Priah said. Mario nodded in agreement. "And planning field day makes it even better."
"Time to head back to the classroom and pack up," Ms. Carroll called. "We'll haul all this stuff out to the playground tomorrow morning."
That night, Mario dreamed about field day. As he pulled himself out of bed with all his might, he heard a jet fly overhead. He woke up, and he realized he would see his friends at field day.

Joanna C. Weaver, Cynthia D. Bertelsen, 2024-10-16 This resource offers teachers a simple framework to seamlessly add reflective practice to their day and encourages educators to critically reflect on instructional planning and practice. Commonly used in other busy professions, the SOAP Notes structure makes it easy to reflect on student progress through any lesson or learning activity regardless of grade band or content area. Each category—Subjective, Observation, Assessment, and Planning—allows for documentation of obstacles, difficulties, or challenges within a lesson so educators can address these concerns in subsequent lessons. Each chapter features an in-service teacher who used SOAP Notes reflections in their classrooms to improve their instruction and student learning. Contributors are from diverse teaching backgrounds, schools, and student populations. The authors include instructions for using the template in a variety of scenarios, blank worksheets, completed SOAP examples, and important take-aways. Whether there is an hour or only minutes in the day to focus on reflective practice, these teachers demonstrate how this framework makes this activity possible in any classroom. Ideal for preservice and in-service teachers, administrators, and other education professionals across K-12 settings, this accessible read demonstrates the ease of reflective practice while celebrating teacher voices. This simple structure makes adding reflection and intention to teachers' routine immediately doable. (Re)designing Narrative Writing Units for Grades 5-12 Kathy Tuchman Glass, 2017-12-11 Teaching writing is a powerful and effective means for learning across all grade levels and disciplines.
