Early and School-Age Care in Santa Monica Ashley Pierson, Lynn A. Karoly, Gail L. Zellman, Megan K. Beckett, 2014-04-22
In July 2012 the City of Santa Monica Human Services Division and the Santa Monica Malibu Unified School District contracted with the RAND Corporation to conduct an assessment of child care programs in Santa Monica. The project sought to assess how well Santa Monica's early and school age care programs meet the needs of families. Recommendations for improvement focused on advancing access, quality, service delivery, and financial sustainability. Summer Sessions Information and Class Schedules Bulletin University of Nebraska--Lincoln. Summer Sessions Office, 1925 Note 1973 77 editions formerly classified U0500T001 Redleaf Family Child Care Curriculum, Third Edition Sharon Woodward, Bisa Batten Lewis, 2025-11-11 Over 200 developmentally appropriate learning experiences to choose from. The Redleaf Family Child Care Curriculum third edition provides the same user friendly format you trust with new content and ideas for hundreds of creative and inclusive learning experiences. Activities are organized by age and developmental domain: physical and motor, cognitive, communication and language, social, emotional, and approaches to learning. This easy to use reference allows you to make choices based on the needs of the children in your care. The book contains a complete curriculum for a successful family child care program that promotes the healthy development of infants, toddlers, and preschool and school age children in a caring, nurturing environment. The updated curriculum now includes new sections on caring for school age children before and after school and during school breaks. New research and best practices for supporting dual language learners as well as children with diagnosed disabilities or additional support needs. Enhanced strategies and information for working with families and being culturally responsive. Enrich your program and support children's early learning with best practices and activities designed specifically for family child care professionals.
