House of Representatives,1898 I'd rather be alone and free than locked up together SVEN LENDERINK,2024-07-09 This book takes you on my personal journey through one of the world's most rigid religions Jehovah's Witnesses From my early childhood I share my experiences within this tightly controlled world where later in life I began to question and confront my inner struggles You will gain a unique insight into the faith that promised us that God would soon intervene and that we his devoted followers would be rewarded with a paradisiacal existence But this utopia demands sacrifices strict obedience to rules and shielding oneself from many worldly temptations For a child in this isolated community life is already a challenge but growing up and finding one s way to adulthood brings new obstacles Do I doubt everything I ve been taught Do I want to continue down this path Is escape even an option If so what price must I pay What follows is an emotional journey that begins at a young age Voicing my doubts would mean being ostracized from my community Family and friends could turn their backs on me Literally everything is at stake Ultimately I face a pivotal choice Do I remain trapped in this world or do I choose freedom Whichever path I take it will forever change my life The Ladies' Repository ,1848 The idea of this women s magazine originated with Samuel Williams a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey's Lady's Book and Snowden's Lady's Companion Written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister Phoebe Cary Otway Curry Moncure D Conway and Joshua R Giddings and New England contributors included Mrs Lydia Sigourney Hannah F Gould and Julia C R Dorr By 1851 each issue published a peice of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits When Davis E Clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000 Unlike his predecessors Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository The Ladies Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own Cf American periodicals 1741 1900 Aurora Floyd, by the author of 'Lady Audley's secret'.
