No One Wants To Live Here:

We Just Want To Live Here Amal Rifa'i, Odelia Ainbinder, Sylke Tempel, 2007-04-01 Palestinian Amal Rifa'i and Israeli Odelia Ainbinder are two teenage girls who live in the same city yet worlds apart. They met on a student exchange program to Switzerland. Weeks after they returned, the latest violent Intifada broke out in the fall of 2000. But two years later, Middle East correspondent Sylke Tempel encouraged Amal and Odelia to develop their friendship by facilitating an exchange of their deepest feelings through letters. In their letters, Amal and Odelia discuss the Intifada, their families, traditions, suicide bombers, and military service. They write frankly of their anger, frustrations, and fear, but also of their hopes and dreams for a brighter future. Together, Amal and Odelia give us a renewed sense of hope for peace in the Middle East in We Just Want To Live Here.

Bryxx Tarisa Marie, 2018-02-01 An 80,000 word Paranormal Romance. From best-selling author Tarisa Marie comes Bryxx, the first book in her new Crimson Forest series. A small town in Montana hides a tragic supernatural secret. Over the span of centuries, many lives have been lost, many people have gone missing, and many others have lost their minds in the blink of an eye, all without explanation. When May returns to the farm she lived on until age 15, she quickly learns that the unfortunate events of her family's past are not as coincidental as she always thought. Her hometown is plagued with deadly immortal beings, and now she too is about to fall victim of the dangerous supernatural world just as her ancestors. Her brother, who's been missing since childhood, turns out to secretly be living just down the road from the family farmhouse; her blood will literally be the death of her, and the man she wants to trust most, the man she's quickly falling in love with, is also one of the beings she should fear the most.

Immigrant Nations Paul Scheffer, 2011-06-20 This book is a path-breaking reflection of the challenges posed to Western societies by the large-scale migration of the postwar period.

Povídky Nancy Hawker, 2012-11-01 Young women drift through Prague wondering about unplanned pregnancies; a child's reflections on the Christian concept of sinfulness lead to resolve to sin only just a little bit; drunken men banter over interminable card games; and a woman's salvation comes in the unexpected form of pickled buttocks. Bringing together authors of different generations, styles, and backgrounds, including for the first time in English translation two stories by Czech Roma, this collection expresses women's multiple perspectives on social and intimate issues with, by turns, caustic and sensitive insight into human nature. Full of humour, acuity, and inventiveness.

We Live Here Now C. D. Rose, 2025-08-05 DeLillo meets Kafka in a wickedly smart novel that explores the boundaries between art and life, vision and reality, beauty and commerce. When visitors to a famous conceptual artist's installation start mysteriously disappearing, the aftershocks radiate outwards through twelve people who were involved in the project, changing all of their lives and launching them on a crazy, quilt trajectory that will end with them all together at one final, apocalyptic bacchanal. Mixing illusion and reality, simulacra and replicants, sound artists and death artists, performers and filmmakers, and theorists and journalists, We Live Here Now ranges across the world of weapons dealers and
