In March 2010, President Obama signed into law the 2010 Health Care Reform Bill. The public policy decision-making process is strongly connected to the political process in a country.

The 2010 Health Care Reforms Bill decision making process began in 2008 when Senate Finance Committee held numerous hearings with regard to the healthcare reforms between May 2008 and November 2008. After all the hearings had been made, the Senate Finance Committee released a comprehensive white paper with policy options based on the hearings that had been conducted and called for subsequent healthcare reforms to be made. In November 2008, there was an agreement between the Senate Finance Committee and the Senate Health, Education, Labor, and pensions committee (HELP) in
