Past Paper Mai 2014 Proficiency Cambridge:

English Language Proficiency Testing in Asia Lily I-Wen Su, Cyril J. Weir, Jessica R. W. Wu, 2019-11-19 As the demand for English language education grows in Asia there has been a parallel growth in the development and implementation of standardized tests at the local level Offering much needed context on locally produced tests in Asia contributors examine emerging models for English language assessment and the impact these large scale tests have on the teaching and learning of English Chapters address the following well known and developing high stakes tests in different regions across Asia the GEPT the TEPS the VSTEP the CET the EIKEN and TEAP and the ELPA Brought together by world renowned testing assessment scholar Cyril Weir and the Language Training and Testing Center LTTC one of Asia's leading testing institutions based in Taiwan this volume is a useful reference for evaluating developing and validating local tests of English and their societal impact Comprehensive and research based chapters cover historic backgrounds sociocultural contexts test quality international standing and future considerations Ideal for graduate students researchers and scholars in language assessment TESOL TEFL and applied linguistics this book will also be of interest to language teaching professionals language test developers and graduate students in Asian studies and international education intercultural communication and intercultural studies Mediation as Negotiation of Meanings, Plurilingualism and Language Education Bessie

Dendrinos, 2024-06-04 Bringing together the voices of a diverse group of scholars and language professionals this edited collection concerned with the cultivation of plurilingualism in multilingual educational settings builds on the theory and practice of linguistic and cultural mediation both as curricular content and social practice The chapters view mediation as an important aspect of communication which involves dynamic purposeful interactivity implicating social agents in the negotiation and construction of socially situated meanings across different languages and within the same language Theoretically informed chapters present views on mediation as well as contributors research and project outcomes in educational interventions They also describe how mediation has been incorporated in educational practices and how it materialises in social contexts Ultimately this book makes the case for why mediation constitutes a key competence to be developed for active global and local citizenry in today's societies where there is an increased rate of knowledge acquisition and exchange Presenting research from classrooms and other multilingual environments this book offers concrete suggestions for the development of language users learners ability to mediate within and across languages It will appeal to scholars researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of language and education education policy and politics bilingualism and plurilingualism more generally Curriculum designers may also find the volume of use Challenges in Language Testing Around the World Betty Lanteigne, Christine Coombe, James Dean Brown, 2021-02-17 This book combines insights from language assessment literacy and critical language testing through critical analyses and research about challenges in language assessment around the world It investigates problematic practices in language testing which are relevant to language test users such as language program directors testing centers and language teachers as well as teachers in training in Graduate Diploma and Master of Arts in Applied Linguistics programs These issues involve aspects of language testing such as test development test administration scoring and interpretation use of test results Chapters in this volume discuss insights about language testing policy testing world languages developing program level language tests and tests of specific language skills and language assessment literacy In addition this book identifies two needs in language testing for further examination the need for collaboration between language test developers language test users and language users and the need to base language tests on real world language use Prof.Izhar,2015-08-09 China-Africa

Relations Kathryn Batchelor,Xiaoling Zhang,2017-06-26 The recent rapid growth in China's involvement in Africa is being promoted by both Chinese and African leaders as being conducted in a spirit of cooperation friendship and equality In the media and informally however a different less harmonious picture emerges This book explores how China and Africa really regard each other how official images are manufactured and how informal images are nevertheless shaped and put forward The book covers a wide range of areas where China Africa exchange exists including diplomacy technological cooperation sport culture and arts exchange The book also discusses the historical development of the relationship and how it is likely to develop going forward Evaluating Student Learning in Higher Education: Beyond the Public Rhetoric William H. Rickards,Monica Stitt-Bergh,2016-09-26 Evaluation has played a fundamental role throughout the history of higher education It has been key to institutional missions and for accountability concerns for public funding policy and fiscal oversight In the last 30 years there has been focused attention on the quality of education and student learning Campuses have stepped up their initiatives to evaluate educational outcomes and communicate these to their constituencies just as regional state and national efforts have emerged regarding assessment of learning outcomes In this context various methods and approaches to evaluative inquiry have emerged to support efforts to increase the effectiveness and efficiency of instructional practice and curriculum for higher learning This edition examines perspectives on evaluation studies addressing higher education learning from program to institution based studies and critiques of practice to document successes and identify significant challenges that face evaluators and the collaborating educators in the continuing development of higher education This examination represents both an investigation into the particular insights that evaluative inquiry contributes to the scholarship and practice of higher education and a reflection on the evaluation expertise that can be applied across contexts of professional practice and program development This is the 151st issue in the New Directions for Evaluation series from Jossey Bass It is an official publication of the American Evaluation Association Fundamental Considerations in Technology Mediated Language Assessment Karim Sadeghi,Dan Douglas,2023-04-27 Fundamental Considerations in Technology Mediated Language Assessment aims to address issues such as how the forced integration of technology into second language assessment has shaped our understanding of key traditional concepts like validity reliability washback authenticity ethics fairness test security and more Although computer assisted language testing has been around for more than two decades in the context of high stakes proficiency testing much of language testing worldwide has shifted to at home mode and relies heavily on the mediation of digital technology making its widespread application in classroom settings in response to the COVID 19 outbreak unprecedented Integration of technology into language assessment has brought with it countless affordances and at the same time challenges both theoretically and practically One major theoretical consideration requiring attention is the way technology has contributed to a reconceptualization of major assessment concepts constructs There is very limited literature available on the theoretical underpinnings of technology mediated language assessment This book aims to fill this gap This book will appeal to academic specialists practitioners or professionals in the field of language assessment advanced and or graduate students and a range of scholars or professionals in disciplines like educational technology applied linguistics and teaching English to speakers of other languages TESOL

The Action-oriented Approach Enrica Piccardo,Brian North,2019-07-24 This book presents the background to the current shift in language education towards action oriented action based teaching and provides a theorization of the Action oriented Approach AoA It discusses the concepts and theories that paved the way for the AoA and explores their relevance for the way language education is conceived and implemented in the classroom In the process it revisits the concept of competence and discusses the dynamic notions of mediation and plurilingualism The authors explain the way in which the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages CEFR and its recent update the CEFR Companion Volume broaden the scope of language education in particular in relation to the actional turn The book provides scholars and practitioners with a research informed description of the AoA explains its implications for curriculum planning teaching and assessment and elaborates on its pedagogical implications

Multilingual Computer Assisted Language Learning Judith Buendgens-Kosten,Daniela Elsner,2018-08-09 Recent developments in education such as the increasing linguistic diversity in school populations and the digital revolution which has led to new ways of being learning and socialising have brought about fresh challenges and opportunities In response this book shows how technology enriches multilingual language learning as well as how multilingual practices enrich computer assisted language learning CALL by bringing together two thus far distinct fields of research CALL and multilingual approaches to language learning The collection includes contributions from researchers and practitioners from three continents to illustrate how native languages previously studied languages heritage languages or dialects are activated through technology in formal and informal learning situations The studies in this book showcase multilingual language use in chat rooms computer games digital stories ebook apps online texts and telecollaboration virtual exchange via interactive whiteboards This volume will be of interest to researchers interested in language learning and teaching and to practitioners looking for support in seizing the opportunities presented by the multilingual digital classroom
