enigmatic afterlife in nineteenth century utopian art and literature
