Reading Programs for Young Adults

Martha Seif Simpson, 2015-11-16 School and public libraries often provide programs and activities for children in preschool through the sixth grade but there is little available to young adults For them libraries become a place for work the place to research an assignment or find a book for a report but the thought of the library as a place for enjoyment is lost So how do librarians recapture the interest of teenagers This just might be the answer Here you will find theme based units such as Cartoon Cavalcade Log On at the Library Go in Style Cruising the Mall Space Shots Teens on TV and 44 others that are designed for young adults Each includes a display idea suggestions for local sponsorship of prizes a program game to encourage participation 10 theme related activities curriculum tie in activities sample questions for use in trivia games or scavenger hunts ideas for activity sheets a bibliography of related works and a list of theme related films The units are highly flexible allowing any public or school library to adapt them to their particular needs Community Collaborative Partnerships Mary M. McKay, Roberta L. Paikoff, 2012-12-06 Find out how best to develop HIV prevention programs that work Community Collaborative Partnerships The Foundation for HIV Prevention Research Efforts is a must read for anyone interested in developing prevention programs within high risk urban environments Illustrative case studies quality research revealing personal stories and helpful tables and figures provide valuable insights on innovative ways to partner in the prevention of the spread of HIV in youths Leading experts in the field offer practical strategies to dissolve the distrust individuals in a community hold for researchers not a part of that community fostering an effective collaboration to deal with problems The book also describes ways to go beyond the United States model to reveal how to replicate the same dynamic relationships in international communities Active participation with the community and families has been found to be vital for the success of HIV AIDS prevention efforts Community Collaborative Partnerships The Foundation for HIV Prevention Research Efforts solves the common problem of forcing ineffective program models onto an unreceptive community Program developers get the necessary tools to develop relationships and cultivate substantive input from those in the community to help ensure better program results The research here is up to date and the suggestions invaluable Topics in Community Collaborative Partnerships The Foundation for HIV Prevention Research Efforts include the role of parenting in mental health and HIV risk research findings about frequency of sexual intercourse among adolescents racial socialization and family role in HIV knowledge family influences on exposure to situations of sexual possibility preadolescent risk behavior influence on parental monitoring strategies for collaboration between community and academic HIV prevention researchers involving urban parents as collaborators in HIV prevention research motivators and barriers to participation of minority families in a prevention program transferring a university led HIV prevention program to the community Trinidad and Tobago HIV AIDS prevention using a family based program and much more Community Collaborative Partnerships The Foundation for HIV Prevention Research Efforts is valuable reading for researchers program developers community based organizations public policy advocacy organizations community organizers educators and students in the fields of social work public health public administration and community medicine Literature for Young Adults Joan L. Knickerbocker, 2017-03-15 Young adults are actively looking for anything that connects them with the changes happening in their lives and the books discussed throughout Literature for Young Adults have the potential to make that connection and motivate them to read It explores a great variety of works genres and formats but it places special emphasis on contemporary works whose nontraditional themes protagonists and literary conventions make them well suited to young adult readers It also looks at the ways in which contemporary readers access and share the works they're reading and it shows teachers ways to incorporate nontraditional ways of accessing and sharing books throughout their literature programs In addition to traditional genre chapters Literature for Young Adults includes chapters on literary nonfiction poetry short stories and drama cover art picture books illustrated literature and graphic novels and film It recognizes that while films can be used to complement print literature they are also a literacy format in their own right and one that young adults are particularly familiar and comfortable with The book's discussion of literary language including traditional elements as well as metafictional terms enables readers to share in a literary conversation with their students and others when communicating about books It will help readers teach young adults the language they need to articulate their responses to the books they are reading The Romantics Reviewed Donald Reiman, 2016-10-04 First published in 1972 this volume contains contemporary British periodical reviews of Lord Byron and Regency Society Poets including Rogers Campbell and Moore in publications from the Literary Gazette to the Monthly Review Introductions to each periodical provide brief sketches of each publication as well as names dates and bibliographical information Headnotes offer bibliographical data of the reviews and suggested approaches to studying them This book will be of interest to those studying the Romantics and English literature Teachers, Teaching, and Media, 2019-06-24 Popular representations of teachers and teaching are easy to take for granted precisely because they are so accessible and pervasive Our lives are intertextual in the way lived experiences overlap with the stories of others presented to us through mass media It is this set of connected narratives that we bring into classrooms and into discussions of educational policy In this day and time with public education under siege by forces eager to deprofessionalize teaching and transfer public funds to benefit private enterprises we ignore the dominant discourse about education and the patterns of representation that typify educator characters at our peril This edited volume offers a fresh take on educator characters in popular culture and also includes important essays about media texts that have not been addressed adequately in the literature previously The 15 chapters cover diverse forms from literary classics to iconic teacher movies to popular television to rock n roll Topics explored include pedagogy through the lenses of gender sexuality race disability politics narrative archetypes curriculum teaching strategies and liberatory praxis The various perspectives represented in this volume come from scholars and practitioners of education at all levels of schooling This book is especially timely in an era when public education in the United States is under assault from conservative political forces and undervalued by the general public Contributors are Steve Benton Naeemah Clark
