Postfeminism and Contemporary Vampire Romance Lea Gerhards, 2022-05-19. In this book, Lea Gerhards traces connections between three recent vampire romance series: the Twilight film series (2008-2012), The Vampire Diaries (2009-2017), and True Blood (2008-2014), exploring their tremendous discursive and ideological power in order to understand the cultural politics of these extremely popular texts. She uses contemporary vampire romance to examine postfeminist ideologies and discuss gender, sexuality, subjectivity, agency, and the body. Discussing a range of conflicting meanings contained in the narratives, Gerhards critically looks at genre's engagement with everyday sexism and violence against women, power relations in heterosexual relationships, sexual autonomy, and pleasure, self-empowerment, and self-surveillance. She asks: Why are these genre texts so popular right now? What specific desires, issues, and fears are addressed and negotiated by them, and what kinds of pleasures do they offer?

Spaces of the Cinematic Home Eleanor Andrews, Stella Hockenhull, Fran Pheasant-Kelly, 2015-07-24. This book examines the ways in which the house appears in films and the modes by which it moves beyond being merely a backdrop for action. Specifically, it explores the ways that domestic spaces carry inherent connotations that filmmakers exploit to enhance meanings and pleasures within film. Rather than simply examining the representation of the house as national symbol, auteur trait, or in terms of genre, contributors study various rooms in the domestic sphere from an assortment of time periods and from a diversity of national cinemas, from interior spaces in ancient Rome to the Chinese kitchen, from the animated house to the metaphor of the armchair in film noir.

The Korean Wave Youna Kim, 2013-11-12. Since the late 1990s, South Korea has emerged as a new center for the production of transnational popular culture, the first instance of a major global circulation of Korean popular culture in history. Why popular or not? Why now? What does it mean socially, culturally, and politically in a global context? This edited collection considers the Korean Wave in a global digital age and addresses the social, cultural, and political implications in their complexity and paradox within the contexts of global inequalities and uneven power structures. The emerging consequences at multiple levels, both macro structures and micro processes that influence media production, distribution, representation, and consumption, deserve to be analyzed and explored fully in an increasingly global media environment. This book argues for the Korean Wave's double capacity in the creation of new and complex spaces of identity that are both enabling and disabling cultural diversity in a digital cosmopolitan world The Korean Wave combines theoretical perspectives with grounded case studies in an up to date and accessible volume ideal for both undergraduate and postgraduate students of Media and Communications Cultural Studies Korean Studies and Asian Studies A Companion to Russian Cinema Birgit Beumers,2016-07-12 A Companion to Russian Cinema provides an exhaustive and carefully organised guide to the cinema of pre Revolutionary Russia of the Soviet era as well as post Soviet Russian cinema edited by one of the most established and knowledgeable scholars in Russian cinema studies The most up to date and thorough coverage of Russian Soviet and post Soviet cinema which also effectively fills gaps in the existing scholarship in the field This is the first volume on Russian cinema to explore specifically the history of movie theatres studios and educational institutions The editor is one of the most established and knowledgeable scholars in Russian cinema studies and contributions come from leading experts in the field of Russian Studies Film Studies and Visual Culture Chapters consider the arts of scriptwriting sound production design costumes and cinematography Provides five portraits of key figures in Soviet and Russia film history whose works have been somewhat neglected Scripting Adolescent Romance Stacey J. sharper focus on subterranean subregionalism s border communities popular geopolitics of enmity and transborder challenges to sustainability could open up spaces for new multiple re imaginings of borders at diverse scales and sights including sub urban neighbourhoods school textbooks cinema and trans border conservation initiatives The chapters in this edited volume have been contributed by both renowned as well as young emerging scholars looking into the borders and boundaries in South Asia Each chapter offers new perspectives and insights into themes like trans Himalayan borderlands India Pakistan physical and mental borders Afghanistan Pakistan border and numerous social boundaries that we see in everyday South Asia The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Borderlands Studies
