Cleaning Up Dan Zuberi, 2013-09-20 To cut costs and maximize profits hospitals in the United States and many other countries are outsourcing such tasks as cleaning and food preparation to private contractors In Cleaning Up the first book to examine this transformation in the healthcare industry Dan Zuberi looks at the consequences of outsourcing from two perspectives its impact on patient safety and its role in increasing socioeconomic inequality Drawing on years of field research in Vancouver Canada as well as data from hospitals in the U S and Europe he argues that outsourcing has been disastrous for the cleanliness of hospitals leading to an increased risk of hospital acquired infections a leading cause of severe illness and death as well as for the effective delivery of other hospital services and the workers themselves Zuberi s interviews with the low wage workers who keep hospitals running uncover claims of exposure to near constant risk of injury and illness Many report serious concerns about the quality of the work due to understaffing high turnover poor training and experience inadequate cleaning supplies and on the job injuries Zuberi also presents policy recommendations for improving patient safety by reducing the risk of hospital acquired infection and ameliorating the work conditions and quality of life of hospital support workers He makes the case that hospital outsourcing exemplifies the trend towards low road service sector jobs that threatens to undermine society s social health as well as the physical health and well being of patients in health care settings globally

The SAGE Handbook of Human Geography, 2v Roger Lee, Noel Castree, Rob Kitchin, Vicky Lawson, Anssi Paasi, Chris Philo, Sarah Radcliffe, Susan M. Roberts, Charles Withers, 2014-05-22 Superb How refreshing to see a Handbook that eschews convention and explores the richness and diversity of the geographical imagination in such stimulating and challenging ways Peter Dicken University of Manchester

Stands out as an innovative and exciting contribution that exceeds the genre Sallie A Marston University of Arizona Captures wonderfully the richness and complexity of the worlds that human beings inhabit This is a stand out among handbooks Lily Kong National University of Singapore This wonderfully unconventional book demonstrates human geography s character and significance not by marching through traditional themes but by presenting a set of geographical essays on basic ideas practices and concerns Alexander B Murphy University of Oregon This SAGE Handbook stands out for its capacity to provoke the reader to think anew about human geography essays that offer some profoundly original insights into what it means to engage geographically with the world Eric Sheppard UCLA Published in association with the journal Progress in Human Geography edited and written by the principal scholars in the discipline this Handbook demonstrates the difference that thinking about the world geographically makes Each section considers how human geography shapes the world interrogates it and intervenes in it It includes a major retrospective and prospective introductory essay with three substantive sections on Imagining Human Geographies Practising Human Geographies Living Human Geographies The Handbook also has an innovative multimedia component of conversations about key issues in human geography as well as an overview of human geography from the Editors A key reference for any scholar interested in questions about what difference it makes to think spatially or geographically about the world this Handbook is a rich and textured statement about the geographical imagination

China, India and Southeast Asia Edmund Terence Gomez, Kee Cheok Cheong, Vamsi Vakulabharanam, 2018-12-07 This volume studies the outcomes of the two way flow of investments and people between China and India and Southeast Asia These cross border flows have led to new settlements in Southeast Asia from which new outlooks have emerged among locally born generations that have given rise to new forms of solidarity and identification The advent of new generations of ethnic Chinese and Indians in Southeast Asia with no ties to China or India has spawned important debates about identity shifts which have not been registered by government leaders in Southeast Asia China and India as reflected in policy statements and investment patterns Identity changes are assessed in forms where they best manifest themselves in social life and in business ventures forged or unsuccessfully nurtured through tie ups involving foreign and domestic capital A state society distinction is employed to determine how the governments of these rapidly developing countries envision development through state intervention as well as with the employment of highly entrepreneurial ethnic groups and the outcomes of this on their societies and on their economies The chapters were originally published as a special issue in The Round Table

Climate Change and Sustainable Cities Hugo Priemus, Simin Davoudi, 2016-04-08 Climate change has demonstrated perhaps more than any other environmental concerns the complexities of the human nature interrelationship and the need for embedding a far greater environmental consciousness into our social values and norms A drastic reduction in global greenhouse gas emissions requires a transition to low carbon cities This demands a better understanding of the interactions between social technical and spatial processes which constitute cities The aim of this book is to explore these interactions and urge urban planners and other built environment professionals to revisit some of their traditional concepts methods and ways of thinking about what constitutes a good city and according to whose priorities The book brings together nine contributions ranging from broad overviews to sector specific analysis paying particular attention to the role of urban planning Contributors cover climate change mitigation and adaptation deal with different scales of analysis ranging from international and European to national and city perspectives and discuss a range of policy sectors including housing transport energy sea level rise as well as pathways for climate policy implementation The diversity of the contributions is itself a reflection of the multitude of climate change concerns that preoccupy researchers policy makers and practitioners This book was published as a special issue of European Planning Studies

Producer Services in China Anthony Yeh, Fiona Yang, 2013-02-11 In the past three decades China has experienced an unprecedented pace of economic and urban development It s economy is now transforming from one based on manufacturing industries towards the producer services with the importance of these services in the national and regional economy being recognized by economists and policy makers alike With growing demand and policy support producer services are expected to expand rapidly leading to a new wave of economic and urban development in China This groundbreaking volume is one of the first to address questions related to the development of these services in China The contributions explore a wide range of associated topics including the characteristics of the growth of producer services and how this is related to China s economic and urban transition the distribution of these services amongst Chinese cities as well as drawing comparison between producer service development in China and Western counterparts This volume also discusses the dynamics of the development of these services in China and how the political economic embeddedness of China has shaped the development of producer services Finally the consequences of this growth and how the economy and urban space have change in response is explored as well as the challenges Chinese cities face in moving towards a service economy and how this can inform future public policies This volume addresses the pressing need to understand the economic and urban changes in post industrial China to allow appropriate strategies and policies to formulated to facilitate future development in China The text is rich with statistical data and diagrams providing original contributions and a cutting edge overview This timely publication will be of interest to upper level undergraduates postgraduates and researchers interested in China Urban Studies and Economic Development CORP 2011 Proceedings/Tagungsband Manfred Schrenk,Vasily V. Popovich,Peter Zeile, Urban Transformational Landscapes in the City-Hinterlands of Asia Debnath Mookherjee,George M. Pomeroy,Le Thi Thu Huong,2023-05-16 In the context of mounting challenges stemming from a rapid transformation of the urban regional landscapes in many Asian countries this book highlights a multifaceted array of issues that increasingly engage the academic and planning communities in search of viable solutions to complex problems facing us Even though cities continue to dominate development studies urbanization of Asia is evolving toward a hybrid urban rural nexus beyond the cities This volume considers these shifting dynamics of Asian urbanization including urban spatial transformations and their ramifications in the context of sustainability and planning Through the lens of a set of empirical studies across diverse disciplines geographies and methodologies yet with an overarching concern for sustainability in varied but interconnected areas such as climate change land use planning infrastructure and urban mobility and quality of life these studies examine a range of important topics e g flooding transportation housing open space green space urban garden and such in city regional settings Together they add insights into varied transformational processes or patterns at work on the urban regional landscapes in a number of Asian countries while offering innovative approaches or alternatives The proposed volume fills a gap in urban regional studies in context of South and Southeast Asia that will be of interest to all stakeholders e g planners administrators academicians and the citizenry particularly those interested in sustainability and planning paradigms It should be a timely and valuable addition to the Asian urbanization literature Climate Change 2014 - Impacts, Adaptation and Vulnerability: Global and Sectoral Aspects Christopher B. National Center for Science and Engineering Statistics NCSES and predecessor agencies has produced regularly updated measures of research and development expenditures employment and training in science and engineering and other indicators of the state of U S science and technology A more recent focus has been on measuring innovation in the corporate sector NCSES collects its own data on science technology and innovation STI activities and also incorporates data from other agencies to produce indicators that are used for monitoring purposes including comparisons among sectors regions and with other countries and for identifying trends that may require policy attention and generate research needs NCSES also provides extensive tabulations and microdata files for in depth analysis Capturing Change in Science Technology and Innovation assesses and provides recommendations regarding the need for revised refocused and newly developed indicators of STI activities that would enable NCSES to respond to changing policy concerns This report also identifies and assesses both existing and potential data resources and tools that NCSES could exploit to further develop its indicators program Finally the report considers strategic pathways for NCSES to move forward with an improved STI indicators program The recommendations offered in Capturing Change in Science Technology and Innovation are intended to serve as the basis for a strategic program of work that will enhance NCSES s ability to produce indicators that capture change in science technology and innovation to inform policy and optimally meet the needs of its user community

Spatial Microsimulation: A Reference Guide for Users Robert Tanton, Kimberley Edwards, 2012-11-13 This book is a practical guide on how to design create and validate a spatial microsimulation model These models are becoming more popular as academics and policy makers recognise the value of place in research and policy making Recent spatial microsimulation models have been used to analyse health and social disadvantage for small areas and to look at the effect of policy change for small areas This provides a powerful analysis tool for researchers and policy makers This book covers preparing the data for spatial microsimulation a number of methods for both static and dynamic spatial microsimulation models validation of the models to ensure the outputs are reasonable and the future of spatial microsimulation The book will be an essential handbook for any researcher or policy maker looking to design and create a spatial microsimulation model This book will also be useful to those policy makers who are commissioning a spatial microsimulation model or looking to commission work using a spatial microsimulation model as it provides information on the different methods in a non technical way

Devonian Climate, Sea Level and Evolutionary Events R. T. Becker, 1st, C. E. Brett, P. Königshof, 2nd, 2016-10-20 The geological and palaeontological records of climate change and evolutionary events reflect Earth s widely fluctuating climate systems Past climates hold the clues to understanding future developments In this context research on linked climate biodiversity and sea level fluctuations of the Devonian contributes to the general knowledge of deep time climate dynamics A fruitful co operation between the International Geoscience Programme IGCP 596 and the International Subcommission on Devonian Stratigraphy SDS addressed the complex succession of climate linked Devonian global events of varying magnitude The primary goal of IGCP

596 was to assess mid Palaeozoic climate changes and their impact on marine and terrestrial biodiversity using an interdisciplinary approach The focus of SDS includes a revision of the eustatic sea level curve and the integration of refined chrono and biostratigraphy with modern chemo magneto cyclo event and sequence stratigraphy This enabled the much improved dating and correlation of abiotic perturbations evolutionary changes organism and ecosystem ranges Results by 37 authors are presented in 14 chapters which cover the entire Devonian Place-based Economic Development and the New EU Cohesion Policy Philip McCann, Attila Varga, 2018-02-02 The new EU Cohesion Policy is one of the largest integrated development policies in the Western world and one of the largest of such programmes anywhere in the world The reforms to the EU Cohesion Policy contain many different elements each of which interlink in order to provide a cohesive overall framework Some of the key elements in the reforms however relate to the conditionalities employed and their effects on policy governance and the control mechanism the smart specialization approach to policy prioritization and resource allocation the underlying place based logic of the policy and the overall results orientation and evaluation emphasis of the policy In each of the areas of the EU Cohesion Policy reforms many different scholars from the fields of regional studies regional science and economic geography have played important roles in shaping the new policy and the chapters here highlight these increasing interactions between the policy and academic spheres of debate The collection of essays in this book each deal with specific aspects of these critical elements of the Cohesion Policy reforms In particular they examine some of the strengths and weaknesses of these individual elements and allowing for a better understanding of the origins and backgrounds of many of the ideas underpinning these reforms This book was previously published as a special issue of Regional Studies
