Handbook for Achieving Gender Equity Through Education Susan S. Klein,Barbara Richardson,Dolores A. Grayson,Lynn H. Fox,Cheris Kramarae,Diane S. Pollard,Carol Anne Dwyer,2014-05-22 First published in 1985 the Handbook for Achieving Gender Equity Through Education

quickly established itself as the essential reference work concerning gender equity in education This new expanded edition provides a 20 year retrospective of the field one that has the great advantage of documenting U S national data on the gains and losses in the efforts to advance gender equality through policies such as Title IX the landmark federal law prohibiting sex discrimination in education equity programs and research Key features include Expertise Like its predecessor over 200 expert authors and reviewers provide accurate consensus research based information on the nature of gender equity challenges and what is needed to meet them at all levels of education Content Area Focus The analysis of gender equity within specific curriculum areas has been expanded from 6 to 10 chapters including mathematics science and engineering Global Diversity Focus Global gender equity is addressed in a separate chapter as well as in numerous other chapters The expanded section on gender equity strategies for diverse populations contains seven chapters on African Americans Latina os Asian and Pacific Island Americans American Indians gifted students students with disabilities and lesbian gay bisexual and transgender students Action Oriented All chapters contain practical recommendations for making education activities and outcomes more gender equitable A final chapter consolidates individual chapter recommendations for educators policymakers and researchers to achieve gender equity in and through education New Material Expanded from 25 to 31 chapters this new edition includes more emphasis on male gender equity and on sexuality issues special within population gender equity challenges race ability and disability etc coeducation and single sex education increased use of rigorous research strategies such as meta analysis showing more sex similarities and fewer sex differences and of evaluations of implementation programs technology and gender equity is now treated in three chapters women s and gender studies communication skills relating to English bilingual and foreign language learning and history and implementation of Title IX and other federal and state policies Since there is so much misleading information about gender equity and education this Handbook will be essential for anyone who wants accurate research based information on controversial gender equity issues journalists policy makers teachers Title IX coordinators equity trainers women s and gender study faculty students and parents

Education Law Michael Imber,Tyll van Geel,J. C. Blokhuis,Jonathan Feldman,2013-10-08 Education Law 5th Edition is organized around the belief that students need to read court cases to understand the subtlety and richness of the law but for legal neophytes cases without discussion and interpretation are often too difficult to comprehend This textbook provides a comprehensive survey of the legal problems and issues that confront school administrators and policymakers today Thus the text balances an explanation of the important principles of education law with actual court decisions to illuminate these concepts The court decisions are carefully edited to highlight issues most relevant to administrators and each chapter explores implications for policy and practice This new edition features additional content on bullying student privacy free speech rights teacher evaluation collective bargaining and issues relating to Internet and technology as well as revised materials dealing with education policy and updating of references and case law throughout A companion website with materials for students and instructors including links to full cases a glossary of key concepts and discussion questions to help students further engage with the content Membership Directory and Handbook Indiana Library Federation,2003
