Past Questions And Answers For Nigerian Army:

Mohammed Chris Alli's The Federal Republic of Nigerian Army Dukor, Maduabuchi, 2018-07-14 Mohammed Chris Alli is a retired Nigerian Army Major General who served as Chief of Army Staff from 1993 to 1994 under General Sanni Abacha's regime and was military governor of Plateau State Nigeria from August 1985 to 1986 during the military regime of General Ibrahim Babangida. Many years later he was appointed interim administrator of the state during a 2004 crisis in the state following ethno religious killings in Shendam. Yelwa Local Government. In this anthology organized as a symposium on Mohammed Christopher Alli's work he is identified as one of those critical and rational thinkers/philosophers albeit a General in the Nigerian Army whose work finds a befitting logical space in the contemporary African philosophical tapestry. The book also captures the elements of military misrule in Nigeria and its undue influence on the body polity; it is a critical survey of past military misadventures and a satire against false federalism; it is a firm warning against future corruption and impunity in the military. Directory of Nigerian Book Development Vincent Chukwuemeka Ike, 1998 The Trial of Biafra's Leaders Nelson Ottah, 1980 Nigeria Alfred Obiora Uzokwe, 2015-08-22 This book is a collection of Alfred Obiora Uzokwe's critical commentaries about Nigeria's triumphs, woes, and the way forward. It brings his writings into one volume as a reference material for those conducting research about the country. It will also serve as another tool for Nigeria's policy makers in their everyday quest for better decision making. The subjects of the commentaries are diverse including politics, aviation, infrastructure, health, welfare, and economy. Nigerians are resilient and ingenious but the country continues to flounder, plagued by poor transportation infrastructure, corruption, unemployment, inflation, insecurity, and poor standard of education. The problems of Africa's most populous nation can be traced to rudderless and selfish leaders that have continued to preside over a unidimensional economy. With plummeting oil prices, the nation is now in dire straits more than ever before. Yearning for a change in leadership and direction, Nigerians recently voted in a new government at the center headed by a former military leader who has vowed to institute change. The world is keenly watching to see if the soldier-turned politician would make a positive difference. In spite of the difficulties of the present time, Nigeria still has the potential of becoming a great economy. Social media, where citizens freely vent their thoughts about their leadership, is slowly gaining the attention of leaders. Furthermore, the sometimes scathing commentaries about Nigeria's leaders by the media and commentators like Alfred Obiora Uzokwe can no longer be ignored by the leaders because of their reach in this internet age. Nigerian leaders are slowly being forced to listen to and pay heed to the yearnings and aspirations of the masses, and that is a step in the right direction. Translations on Sub-Saharan Africa United States. Joint Publications Research Service, Military Past, Civilian Present Paul Taylor, Emma Murray, Katherine Albertson, 2019-11-17 This edited book presents a synthesis of current international knowledge on the topic of military veteran transition to civilian life. Understanding the transition of individuals from military institutions to civilian life is of great importance. The essential elements of transition support are currently widely debated in order to assess current practice and potential shortcomings in the intention to improve health welfare and social outcomes for military veterans This text links original research and critical commentary to public policy and practice in the area of veteran transition Doing so through a collection of international perspectives assists in locating continuity and difference between strategies agendas and the realities of what is actually known of the veteran s experience Chapters in this text examine the subject of transition along lines of enquiry that focus in on themes such as social justice veteran identity and developments in transition agendas Globally many veterans face complex social issues such as low income barriers to employment and problems of health and welfare Chapters take stock of the real world issues affecting veterans and at the same time casts a critical eye over the limitations in accessing or denial of access to opportunities support and remedy The veteran identity is an important dimension of enquiry here This book looks at the relational factors between the veteran and the public the creation of a master status and the challenges faced by veterans in transitioning into a cultural context that is saturated with imagery of what a veteran is Chapters also seek to pose recommendations as to how the policy and practice agenda that surrounds veterans and the bridging of the gap between military and civilian life may be developed Here authors point towards the value of knowledge research and analysis that is underpinned by participatory strategies with veterans themselves For example seeking to establish lines of enquiry that value the voice of veterans as an ongoing and iterative dimension of developing understanding

Military Integration after Civil Wars Florence Gaub, 2010-09-13 This book examines the role of multiethnic armies in post conflict reconstruction and demonstrates how they can promote peacebuilding efforts The author challenges the assumption that multiethnic composition leads to weakness of the military and shows how a multiethnic army is frequently the impetus for peacemaking in multiethnic societies Three case studies Nigeria Lebanon and Bosnia Herzegovina determine that rather than external factors it is the internal structures that make or break the military institution in a socially challenging environment The book finds that where the political will is present the multiethnic military can become a symbol of reconciliation and coexistence Furthermore it shows that the military as a professional identity can supersede ethnic considerations and thus facilitates cooperation within the armed forces despite a hostile post conflict setting In this the book challenges widespread theories about ethnic identities and puts professional identities on an equal footing with them The book will be of great interest to students of military studies ethnic conflict conflict studies and peacebuilding and IR in general Florence Gaub is a Researcher and Lecturer at the NATO Defence College in Rome She holds a PhD in International Politics from Humboldt University Berlin and the subsequent intervention of the military into politics the perceived dichotomy between people and state and its implications for issues of development and human rights He states This book is not an indictment of the military of which I am a part It is my perception of the conduct of my generation and the multifarious forces at work amongst and about them It is not a verdict on society rather it is an articulation of the ecstasy the fears the constrictions of a nation in turmoil a nation pulling itself apart
