A significant segment of Common Wealth Literature is from Australia. Australian literature has vision, epic magnitude, inward explorations, outward recesses, outward explorations, spontaneous traditions of human mind and spirit. The Australian writer's obsession with land makes it conscious of the minute. Patrick White, Nobel laureate, "uses conventional chronological novel form and chooses to express his mystical vision through the developing reverberation of his character's progress". His base of operation is basically religious. "He reveals knowledge of mystical and esoteric texts, combining spiritual experience and spiritual vision".

The mystical vision echoes the totally different geography of Australia. Australian land is a burned out desert, inimical to modern man. The few novels of Patrick white, "Voss" (1957) and "Riders in the Chariot" (1961), have religious vision and romantic
